Dedication

To our Fathers and Mothers who have been our guides and counsellors and gentle critics throughout our years of school life. May we catch the vision they have for us and reward them three-fold for their love and devotion

Preface

IN presenting this book it has been the purpose of the editors to picture vividly life at the Charlotte High School; to give an account of the happenings of this year and to so picture and record these happenings that any one glancing through its pages might receive an idea of our activities, such as our athletics, our various organizations, and our social functions. We have striven to present a book that would be a treasure to each high school student wherein he might find fond remembrances of his high school days, and all associations clustering around them.

We wish to thank all who have contributed to the success of this book. Some have helped us by sacrificing time and energy; some have helped financially by giving us advertisements and by buying Annuals; some have helped us by freely bestowing their valuable advice. To one and all we wish to express our deepest gratitude for services rendered.

CAROLINE FRASER ALEXANDER

Age 17. Weight 120. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"What would we do in High School land
For continuous chatter, were Carrie not at hand?"*

To look at Caroline you would not think her a musical person, but oh! those "rags!" You can't keep still when Caroline plays. We are afraid that she does not like to study as well as she likes to play. But, nevertheless, when a stranger comes in, you can count on Carrie; she usually "carries" off all the honors of the day. We wish she would explain the mystery of it to us.

HARRY WATSON ALEXANDER

Age 18. Weight 173. Height 5 ft. 11 in.

Carmel High School, County (1, 2); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Delta Club (3); Letter Club (4); Football Squad (3); Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Varsity Football (4).

*"O, it is excellent
To have a giant's strength."*

Harry came to us almost two years ago from Carmel. He is a big-hearted, witty and mischievous boy, and has the art of making friends down to perfection. He has won a place in the hearts of his school-mates that will not soon be forgotten. He was a star twirler of the baseball nine and filled a place on the football team as no one else could do. All we know of his ambition is that he hopes to become a preacher. If he can win converts as easily as he can make friends, we are confident of his success.

ELLA MALVENA ALEXANDER

Age 17. Weight 120. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); President Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Secretary Senior Class; Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew
That one small head could carry all she knew."*

Everybody knows her! As a student she has been the most earnest of us all. From her Freshman year to her Senior year, nothing has been of too little importance for her to learn. If you want to know anything about history, just ask Malvena. If there is anything concerning the language of "parlez-vous" that you want to know go to Malvena again. When Malvena plays on the piano she holds her audience spellbound, and when the last note has rippled from beneath her capable fingers, her audience breathes a sigh of regret that she has ceased to play.

LORAINÉ LOUISE BATES

Age 18. Weight 103. Height 5 ft.

Western Branch High School, Portsmouth, Virginia (1, 2); Woodrow Wilson High School, Portsmouth Virginia (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

*"A fair, sweet girl, with skillful hand,
And cheerful heart for treasure."*

Loraine is the kind of girl we all want for a friend. Although a new comer among us, we all love her because of her winning and charming ways. She is small and dainty, and presents a pleasing picture to the eye, as you can very well see. After having met her she is your friend for life. We only regret that it has not been our privilege to have her as our companion for a longer period of time.

MILDRED EMMA BLACKBURN

Age 16. Weight 114. Height 5 ft. 4 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

'Her sunshine hair and eyes of blue Clothe a nature loyal and true.'

When "Whitie" raises one of her eyebrows and that queer quizzical little expression comes into her eyes, you can mark it that she means business. Sincerity and truthfulness play an important part in her make-up. Indeed, she is a girl who inspires her friends to do bigger, better things and wins their love without the least trouble. Mildred is a "chum" whom we will never forget.

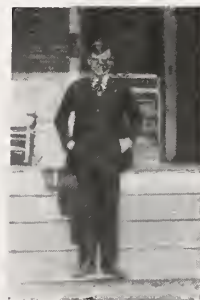

WILLIAM CLARENCE BOYD, JR.

Age 17. Weight 135. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

Hartsville High School, South Carolina (1, 2); Comic Editor Snips and Cuts (4); Exchange Editor Al-Gra-Hy (4); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Senoir Hi-Y Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"We live not to ourselves; our Work is life."

Clarence or "Rhomboid," as he is affectionately dubbed, can be seen here, there, and everywhere around school. When it comes to raising money for school purposes Clarence is right there. It is needless to say that he is popular, for his interest in the activities of the school as well as his always ready sense of humor makes him loved by all. Clarence is always willing to lend a helping hand towards any movement in the interest of the school. Here's to your future, old boy, and may your outlook be as bright and cheerful as your past has been.

ANNA MAE BROWN

Age 17. Weight 114. Height 5 ft. 5 in.
Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4).

"Her voice was ever soft, Gentle, and low; and excellent thing in woman."

A quiet girl with dimples! Such is Anna Mae. Her disposition is just like southern sunshine, and her quiz papers always register the most excellent grades. If we didn't love her so well, our envy would make her conceited, but, as it is, our wonder and admiration accompany all of her success. We know she will win her way in the world and many friends, too, with that gentle way of hers, which has endeared her to all of her classmates.

MARGARET SHAW BROWN

Age 16. Weight 122. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Freshman Club; Girls High School Club (2, 3, 4);
Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Varsity Basket-ball (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"They serve God well Who serve his creatures."

This young lady of the smiling face is Margaret Shaw Brown. How do you like her dimple?

Margaret is noted for her intense enjoyment of a good joke—hence the smile. She is the right guard on our Varsity Basket-ball Team, and she can play! Margaret can be depended upon always to play her best and do her bit to aid the team to victory. She is as loyal as she is cheerful.

CATHERINE EDITH CARMICHAEL

Age 17. Weight 115. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Winston-Salem High School (1); Marshal (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"When she departs, Sorrow abides and happiness takes his leave."

"Dick's chief asset is her beautiful curly, brown hair. And Oh! those eyes—so dreamy and blue with mischief lurking far in their depths. She possesses a vast supply of wit, which she displays on all occasions. She is just "heaps" of fun, with her queer little sayings and gestures. Her sunny, unselfish disposition wins many friends for her. Yes, she contributes greatly to the honor and spirit of our class.

LUCY HOLMES CARSON

Age 17. Weight 98. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Freshman Club; Girls High School Club (2, 3, 4); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Literary Editor Al-Gra-Hy (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Her glossy hair was clustered o'er a brow Bright with intelligence and fair and smooth."

Lucy Holmes is a friend worth having. She is sweet, and dainty, too. And Lucy Holmes can talk to you on any subject. We wonder how she manages to stand so well in her classes and still have as much fun as she does at dances. But don't think she neglects her work for she is remarkably studious. "Consistency in all things," could well be Lucy Holmes' motto in life. She is both dignified and jolly and she has the happy faculty of knowing just when to be dignified and just when to be jolly.

FLORENCE LOUISE CLARK

Age 18. Weight 150. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"A maiden calm, serene, and shy—Forever with a book hard by."

Here's Louise, an all-round girl with a smile on her lips and a dimple in her cheek. We all know Louise, or "Squee" as we usually call her, by her gentle manners, her willingness to accommodate, and her good natured laugh. Louise has a wonderfully sweet disposition and an attractive personality. She is very studious and, although she seems very quiet, she is really the jolliest of the jolly among her friends. We would like to have more like her.

MARY CATHERINE CONLIN

Age 18. Weight 126. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

Saint Peters High School, Charlotte, North Carolina (1, 2, 3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Girls High School Club (4).

*"Stately and tall
She moves through the hall
The queen of a thousand for grace."*

Mary is quiet, dignified, and modest, to a degree that commands admiration from her classmates. She has been with us only one year, but in that time she has proved herself a good student, and one who is always loyal to her teachers. She is to be commended for her good behavior in the class room, since the worst thing she has ever done has been to roll her wonderful blue eyes. We wish for her supreme happiness and success in the future.

MARY NELL CONNER

Age 18. Weight 112. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls High School Club (2, 3, 4).

*"Modest and simple and sweet,
The very type of Priscilla."*

Nell is one who has the happy faculty of always being the same, whether it rains or shines. Her smiling countenance and easy manners have won for her the highest esteem of all those who know her. She is very studious, but fully enjoys all leisure moments. She has a voice that rivals the lark, and playing the piano is also among her accomplishments. Her sincerity and sweet disposition will strew her path as well as that of others, with roses all the way.

GEORGE EDWARD COPELAND, JR.

Age 16. Weight 155. Height 6 ft.

Greenville High School, South Carolina (1, 2).

"Tho' modest, on his unembarrassed brow, Nature had written—Gentlemen."

Edward is one of the "luckiest" fellows we know. When it comes to a test, he can always guess the right answer. While his hair is light, he is not light headed. Although somewhat quiet, every one who knows him likes him. If you want a thing well done, do it yourself, or let Edward do it. One can tell to glance at his high, intellectual forehead that he will succeed in all he undertakes and win a name for himself.

ELLA AGNES CORNELL

Age 16. Weight 135. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Rosing High School, New Mexico (1, 2); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4).

"Of all the ladies in our land There's none so sweet as Ella."

"Ever ready" is an expression which could be applied to Ella for correctness, for she is one who is prompt in everything. She is sweet and lovable as even one who does not know her personally can judge from her sweet face. If her other charms were taken her voice would be an attraction great enough to win everlasting love.

JOSEPH WILLIAM COWHIG

Age 18. Weight 117. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

Cameron Morrison Literary Society (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

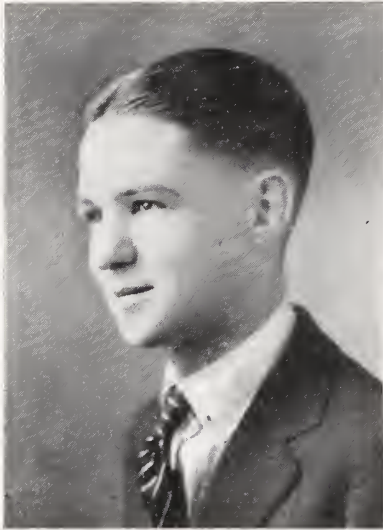

"Silence persuades; when speaking fails."

Joe hails from the Capital of the States, though his four years of high school life have been at old C. H. S. His school life has been a great success.

He has been a jolly, good companion, full of life and fun to all those who knew him, "Be square" and "Stick to it" must be the chief mottoes of his life. He has a queer liking for Ben Franklin's great discovery and we hope he will make as good an electrical engineer as he does a pal.

EDGAR HAROLD CURLEE

Age 17. Weight 136. Height 5 ft. 10 1-2 in.

Glee Club (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Publicity Manager Football (4).

"His nature resembles the mid-day sun."

Edgar is always eager to do his part in any kind of school activity, and when it comes to selling tickets to a school function, he has few close competitors. As a debater, Edgar is a very hard worker and even though he did not quite make the triangular debating team, he deserves much credit on account of his sincere and earnest efforts along this line. Edgar is exceptionally good-natured and wears a continuous smile on his face.

ROBERT FRANKLIN DAVIDSON

Age 17. Weight 118. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"The strongest passion which I have is honor."

A quiet, unassuming, resourceful, young man is Franklin Davidson. He is popular with all, though very bashful with the girls. He is a steady and cheerful worker, and one who is willing to help at all times. He is popular with the teachers because of his faithfulness. Judging from his success thus far, his prospects are bright, and we feel sure we shall soon hear of his successful rise in the business world.

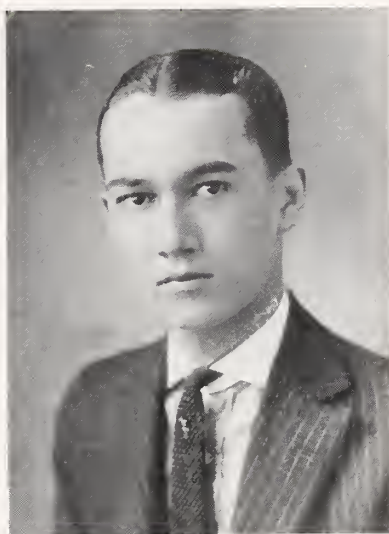

ROBERT TOMPKINS DIXON

Age 16. Weight 150. Height 6 ft. 1-4 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Marshal (3); Varsity Football (4); Letter Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"He has a solid base of temperament."

When we think of Robert, we think of dancing. You know he was voted the best dancer in high school. Dancing, however, is not his only accomplishment; he is strong for athletics, too. In fact, there is not anything that Robert can not do, from getting good marks on all of his subjects—and that with apparently no effort at all on his part—down to having fun in that quiet way of his.

MARY RUTLEDGE DUDLEY

Age 17. Weight 129. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Varsity Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Manager Girls' Basketball (2, 3, 4); Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Vice-President of Sophomore Class; Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls' Cheer Leader (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"Sweet promptings unto kindest deeds
Were in her very look."*

This young lady of the sunny face is not Mary Rutledge at all but Putt—just Putt. Steadfastness, reliability, cheerfulness, and sincerity are all, figuratively, her middle names. Perhaps some in looking over her athletic record may inquire if she really could play basket-ball. Now you just stop and think a minute—what in this world would we have done if faithful old Putt hadn't been on the job?

SARAH BUFORD DUNLAP

Age 16. Weight 116. Height 5 ft. 4 in.

Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Vice-President Girls' High School Club (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Secretary Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Marshal (3); Tattler Staff (3); Secretary Junior Class (3); Student Council (3); Triangular Debate (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Drink to me only with thine eyes."

Sarah has a nice little laugh, which makes you want to laugh with her. She has beautiful eyes and knows how to use them, too. She is serious with all her attractiveness. You ought to hear her debate, and she conducts chapel as if she had years of experience. She has the happy faculty of doing the right thing at the right time, in the right place, and in the right way. We just love Sarah; she's that kind.

ANTHONY EDDY

Age 17. Weight 120. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

Mitchell Military School, Massachusetts (1); Fishburne Military School, Waynesboro, Virginia (2, 3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Football Squad (4); Letter Club (4).

"Mirth, with thee I mean to live."

Anthony, better known as Tony, came to us this year from Fishburne. We do not see how we ever got along without him, especially along athletic lines, for he was one of our star football players and is one of the valued members of the basket-ball team. Even though Tony does not like to study, he manages somehow to get through and even surprises us with nineties sometimes—and once it was a hundred.

BONNIE LEE ELLIOTT

Age 17. Weight 109. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls' High School Club (3, 4).

"To be good rather than conspicuous."

Bonnie is a member of the famous trio: Bonnie, "Toots," and "Ikky." When you find one, the others are bound to be near. Bonnie is dainty and neat in her dress; her manner and disposition are pleasing. She is more—er—settled—than Toots and consequently more painstaking. Every one is in love with her hair. It's not exactly red but goldish and always looks pretty.

FLORA ISABEL ELLIOTT

Age 16. Weight 102. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls' High School Club (3, 4).

"I'll be merry, I'll be free, I'll be sad for nobody."

"Toots" is a real good pal. She can just say the wittiest things you ever heard. One likes to be in her company, because she is so entertaining and always jolly. She likes to have a good time and does not believe in studying until the night before examinations and very little then. She's a musician and can play the piano brilliantly. "Toots" is a real good cook, and is specializing in candy.

KATHERINE VIRGINIA FOIL

Age 18. Weight 113. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Girls' High School Club (1, 2); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4).

"Love, sweetness, goodness in her person shine."

"Kitty" reminds one of a pretty little doll. Her curls are brown and her eyes are big and dreamy. She is an appealing little creature. "Little," did we say? Well, you mustn't tell her she is little. Katherine has an idea that she would like to teach school and we are sure she will succeed in this, for every one loves and admires her.

ELIZABETH BEERY FORE

Age 17. Weight 122. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort, and command."*

Aside from all the usual good traits found in any girl of high ideals, there is one which contributed so largely to Elizabeth's attractiveness that we must tell you about it; it is her jolly laugh. It is spontaneous, it is irresistible, and the way her eyes twinkle testify that it is natural and real. That laugh and those humorous eyes have probably won more friends for her than she herself realizes.

HENDERSON SNELL FOX

Age 17. Weight 135. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Winston-Salem High School, North Carolina (1, 2); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Tis good will makes intelligence."

Henderson Fox is a very conscientious fellow. Although he tries to "shun" out of all he can, when cornered he will give the best that is in him. Like his namesake the "fox," he is small and ever on the lookout for "sights." One of his accomplishments is singing, and he does this very well, especially when any one of the fair sex is around. Fox hates mathematics.

ZELDA BROWN GARRISON

Age 16. Weight 110. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Your wisdom be your guide."

If you are seeking one who combines in herself the qualities of sport, a good student, and an all around good girl, behold her here. Zelda is ambitious, warm-hearted, and always eager to gain all knowledge possible, and she manages to gain it, too. Then, too, Zelda is not only seeking wisdom, but she is seeking for good to do in this world, and she has such a generous heart that she will do anything in the world for her friends, or for anyone who needs her assistance.

LOUISE WILSON GIBBON

Age 16. Weight 115. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Reporter Al-Gra-Hy (4); Social Editor Snips and Cuts (4); Basket-ball Squad (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"True eyes too pure and too honest in aught
To disguise the sweet soul shining thro' them."*

Have you noticed the twinkle in her eye? You have, if you know Louise, otherwise "Weese." She is one of the jolliest, wittiest little (?) creatures you have ever seen. She thoroughly enjoys fun and all kinds of sports and is always in for a good time. Ask somebody who knows, if she can dance. There is much good, deep seriousness in her and if you once win her love she is your friend for life. Her attractiveness is proved by the fact that she was voted the most attractive in the Senior class.

THELMA LAVILLA GRIER

Age 18. Weight 97. Height 4 ft. 11 in.

Girls' High School Club (2, 3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4).

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

"Peggy" is small but she has won a great, big place in the heart of every student. Her sense of humor is unfailing and many's the time her merry laugh has cheered us and driven those dreaded blues away. She is a happy-go-lucky sort of person who says, "I should worry," when things go wrong, but is forever trying to do better. If you are in trouble, she is the person to whom you can tell your troubles, and from whom you can gain sympathy.

KLEO MARGARET HANNON

Age 17. Weight 94. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"Beneath that calm exterior
There lies a deal of deviltry."*

"Come and trip it as you go on the light and fantastic toe" will give you a pretty good conception of Kleo, as we know her. Yet it is not all the "fantastic toe" stuff. If you could see her fingers flitting lightly over the piano keys, with her body moving in tune, you would think she was music from head to foot. That would be just about right, too. Neither is Kleo all music, for she succeeds in her lessons and in all she undertakes.

EDNA GERTRUDE HARDY

Age 18. Weight 105. Height 5 ft. 2 in.

Winterville High School, Mississippi (1); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Treasurer Girls' Choral Club (3); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Your words bring daylight with them when you speak."

Gertrude is just a good, solid girl, possessing good common sense. Being a good student she of course, makes good marks, and has thus laid a strong foundation for her work in the future. On this account we feel assured that she will make a success of the future. Gertrude will always be remembered by her classmates of C. H. S. because of her kindly disposition, and her unselfishness.

MARGARET VIRGINIA HARRELSON

Age 18. Weight 123. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"A daughter of the gods, divinely tall, divinely fair."

Margaret is both a good student and a good sport, the choicest and rearest of combinations. Although she devotes a great deal of time to her studies, Margaret is always into all the fun that's going, even starting it if necessary. She has that contagious smile which is a certain cure for the "blues." Margaret's hobby is teasing the piano keys—thus she succeeds in working off her superfluous energy, and has become quite proficient in this, the finest of the arts. Margaret is just the kind of a girl all love.

MARTHA LAIRD HARRIS

Age 17. Weight 95. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4); Class Poet (4).

"A good heart's worth gold."

The most cheerful of the cheerful—the sunniest disposition—always happy and making others happy—that's Martha. Besides being a good student Martha is very original and writes poetry. In a word Martha is an all around good girl. She has always succeeded in all of her high school work, and is one of the best of the Commercial class. Her speed at the typewriter has become proverbial, and she is bound to succeed in the business world.

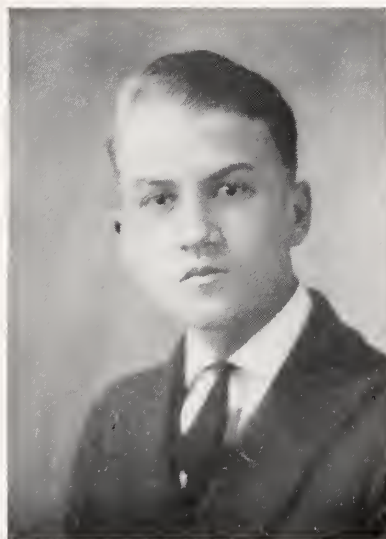

MARCUS ERWIN HAWKINS

Age 17. Weight 130. Height 5 ft. 9 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Glee Club (3); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"Sport that wrinkled care derides
And laughter holding both his sides."*

When you want to hear the latest news from "Movieland," or to know the latest "Star," just go to Marcus; he always knows. Although Marcus is fond of picture shows, his favorite pastime is chewing gum. One wouldn't think such a quiet looking boy could make so much noise, but don't fool yourself, for he can laugh and cheer as loud as any of us. Full of wit and humor, he keeps us laughing all the time. Aside from the time given to pleasure we think he finds some time to study, for he always passes his "examinations."

ANNIE MAY HAYES

Age 16. Weight 130. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls' High School Club (3); Girls' Choral Club (3); Orchestra (3, 4); Reporter Al-Gra-Hy (4).

"Her memory to us is as the memory of exquisite music."

Did you ever hear a lilting laugh? Annie May has one of the most delightful you ever heard, and a disposition as pleasing! Besides the algebra which comes from her mind, there's music that flows on and on, from her magic touch. With her music she has charmed many and we predict a brilliant musical career for her. Then, too, that sweet innocent manner of Annie May's makes her music all the more charming. We wonder how C. H. S. will have an orchestra next year without Annie May!

ELLA FRANCES HAYNES

Age 17. Weight 120. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4).

"The joy of living doth run like quicksilver in her veins."

Ella is a type of girl who is never fully appreciated until she is known intimately. But once her friendship is obtained, it is never lost, for she is a most loyal comrade. She has a trait which most of us so need—persistency. She has never learned the meaning of the word failure; it only means to her that perhaps she hasn't done her best.

RUBY JEANNETTE HILL

Age 18. Weight 135. Height 5 ft. 1-2 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls' High School Club (3, 4).

"'Tis good will makes intelligence."

Jolly, good-natured Ruby! What a dismal world this would be if it were not for such boundless enthusiasm as hers! Her presence is refreshing, for she's always bright and smiling. So it is not strange that she's a girl who suits us all. With her sunny disposition and pleasing manner, tinged with a restful sense of humor, she has endeared herself to every one and we all join in wishing her the very best of success in life.

WALTER NEWMAN HOBBS

Age 15. Weight 115. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

North Charlotte High School (1, 2); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"My books are friends that never fail me."

Walter joined our ranks in his junior year, and he had not been with us long before we found that he was an A-1 student. Though he is smart, don't think he is always solemn and studious, for he is full of life and joy. He is "johnnie-on-the-spot" when it comes to downright school spirit. He is now learning to play a saxophone and we sincerely hope that when he goes to college he may win a place in the college orchestra.

WILLIAM ORR HUNEYCUTT

Age 17. Weight 115. Height 5 ft. 7 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Mine honor is my life; both grew in one Take honor from me and my life is done."

Orr, better known as "Huney," "William Orr" and as plain "Orr" to his more intimate friends, is not one of these frivolous young sprouts, but a steady fellow who mixes hard work with his studies, showing gratifying results on his reports.

Orr has a likeable manner and has made countless friends within and without the school. It may be said that he likes the girls (or a girl) and is a member of the "Jelly Roll Quartet." Although he spends much time delving into the mysteries of printing, he expects to direct his energies along the line of the textile industry, and some day we expect to see him at the head of one of the largest cotton mills in the South.

LOIS RUTH HUNTER

Age 17. Weight 110. Height 5 ft. 2 in.

Cherryville High School, County (1); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Marshal (3).

*"Roses are her cheeks
And a rose her mouth."*

There is a freshness about Ruth which appeals to us as the freshness of a June morning. Her hair hangs in a mass of most beautiful brown curls, and her soft blue eyes catch and hold many an appraising glance. If you ask her how long she has studied, she will probably tell you about five minutes; however, isn't it remarkable that she never gets a poor grade?

RICHARD FRANK IVY

Age 18. Weight 140. Height 5 ft. 11 1-4 in.

Binford Junior High School, Richmond, Va., (1); John Marshall High School, Richmond, Va., (2,3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Advertising Manager Al-Gra-Hy (4); Triangular Debate (4).

*"So kind, so noble,
So generous and true."*

Here is one who is a real honest-to-goodness sport as well as a splendid student. Did you ever hear any one say they didn't like his deep, commanding voice? His personality just shines forth—and talking about school spirit—Whew! He surely has it. When a fellow needs a smile or a kind word, Frank is always at hand to give it to him. The whole school is proud of him because he was one of our four debaters to uphold C. H. S. in the triangular contest with the other State high schools. He is a fine orator as is shown by his being chosen class orator.

MARTHA ELIZABETH JAMISON

Age 17. Weight 103. Height 5 ft. 1-2 in.

Varsity Basket-ball (2, 3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Friendship is the wine of life."

"Well, here is little Martha, J.," all would say, but every one knows this only means in stature, for Martha has a part in everything that goes on. She is a girl that every one admires and likes to be with, for Martha is a good sport and full of life. Every one knows that there are not many things that she can't do as a student and as an athlete. All those who have seen her play basket-ball and swim and dive, envy her because of her alertness and ability. We all know that Martha is a friend that can be depended on through thick and thin.

CALDWELL PHARR JOHNSTON

Age 17. Weight 100. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"Pay goodly heed all eyes who read,
And beware of saying, 'I can't.'"*

Caldwell is little but he's plucky, and nothing will prove this more than his high school record. His success is due, too, to the fact that he never wastes a minute. Just watch him during his study period! He's as busy as a bee, and just on account of this very persistency of his, he is going to win. We predict a successful future for him.

MARY CATHERINE JOHNSTON

Age 17. Weight 109. Height 5 ft.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Girls' High School Club (2, 3); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Those dark eyes—so dark so deep!"

The first thing about Mary that attracts you is her jet black eyes, which mean business at the proper time, and fun later. She is quiet with no nerve to speak of; has a sturdy physical endowment, and common sense enough for two. She has a mind that is quick to grasp anything and which has the power of retaining what it grasps. By means of her gentle nature, she has endeared herself to her classmates.

MARGARET ELIZABETH JONES

Age 18. Weight 118. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

President Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Secretary (2); President (4); Girls' High School Club; Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Secretary Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Girls' Chief Marshal (3); Athletic Association (3, 4); President Athletic Association (3).

"Her air, her manners, all who saw admired; Courteous, tho' coy; and gentle, tho' retired."

To be called on to make a speech is what everybody dreads. If Margaret is called on to make a short talk, she doesn't seem a bit nervous. She calmly rises and delivers a talk which sounds as if it has been thought out and prepared before. But no, that's not Margaret's way; she always says just what she thinks, when she thinks it. And she always thinks just the very best things any girl at C. H. S. could think. Margaret is a girl, who is interested in everything that's worth while.

MARY ELIZABETH KEESLER

Age 16. Weight 115. Height 5 ft. 4 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Reporter Al-Gra-Hy (4); Varsity Basket-ball (2, 3, 4); Captain Basket-ball (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"To those who know thee not, no words can paint!
And those who know thee, know all words are faint!"*

"Oh, what a pal was Mary!" This is the sentiment of all who know her. She is a girl that one can trust, go to for advice, and besides have a good time with. Can she play basket-ball? You should just see her play a game. If every one fought as hard as our "Little Captain" there would be no doubt as to which way the score would turn. Don't think that basket-ball is all she excels in. She is a remarkably good tennis player, can swim and do almost anything that a real wide awake girl enjoys doing.

EDNA CAROLINE LAMBETH

Age 17. Weight 128. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

Trinity High School, N. C., (1); Girls' High School Club (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"In whom reasoning and common sense are combined."

Although Caroline has been with us only three years, we feel that our class would be incomplete without her. She is a very attractive blonde, and without a moment's warning her face will be covered with blushes. Caroline is witty, smart, independent, capable, and is just "lots of fun" when you know her. English is her long suit. She is certainly brilliant and it is a pleasure to hear Caroline recite.

EMMA ELIZABETH LEDFORD

Age 17. Weight 108. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Basket-ball Squad (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"True happiness
Consists not in the multitude of friends
But in worth and choice."*

Some people go through life in an easy, quiet way without becoming exceedingly wrought-up over matters. This seems to be the case with Emma. She is exceptionally good in Vergil. Combined with her sweet disposition and willingness to help she will always be remembered by her classmates as an invaluable associate of their high school days.

ELIZABETH LEDWELL

Age 17. Weight 101. Height 5 ft. 2 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"To know her is to love her."

One may well guess by a look into "Lib's" blue eyes that she is true and sweet. She is always ready to lend a sympathetic ear to everybody's troubles and delights in helping all. With such characteristics as are hers, it is no wonder that she has so many friends. She is just a solid girl whom we can always depend upon, and one with whom we can have "lots of fun" in a good wholesome way.

SARAH ELLIOTT LEDWELL

Age 16. Weight 102 1-2. Height 5 ft. 2 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"A true woman—modest, simple, and sweet."

Here you find revealed a rare type of a girl, and such an one as people like to come in contact with. She is a small and dainty blonde and presents to the eye a pleasing picture, which may be verified by the one above. Sarah stands by all her teachers and always strives to do her best for them. In her commercial work she stands right at the top, and we predict that she is going to be a success in the business world.

MARTHA ADALINE LINEBERGER

Age 18. Weight 130. Height 5 ft. 1 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Girls' High School Club (2); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Here is a dear, a true, industrious friend."

Martha is a girl of an usually sweet disposition, and every one who is brought into contact with her learns to love her. And talk about fun! If any one has the "blues" she immediately goes to Martha, who soon makes her forget troubles and feel happy once again. Martha is a mystery to all the Seniors. While we can not exactly call her the "teachers' pet," yet she certainly has won the love of every one of her teachers, and, therefore, never gets a scolding when her work is not done.

RICHARD LITTLEJOHN

Age 15. Weight 108. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"I dare do all that may become a man:
Who dares do more is none."*

"Rich" is little but he always manages to make himself heard. His sarcasm is at once the delight and terror of the Senior class. Even a haircut makes a target for him. "Rich" doesn't seem to study, but when a test comes along, he "knocks 'em cold." He is a firm backer of the teams, and comes to all the games, where his loyalty and school spirit help to strengthen the players.

JOHN BRYAN LONDON

Age 17. Weight 148. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Editor-in-chief Snips and Cuts (4); Hi-Y Club Editor Al-Gra-Hy and Snips and Cuts (4); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"A heart to resolve, a head to contrive, a hand to execute."

Of the several leaders in high school life and activity that '21 has produced, Jack is one of the most prominent. A ready smile and an attractive personality, coupled with an ability for leadership, both in the class room and in the many other activities of our high school life, are the factors that unite to make him a boy of true worth and merit, and an honor to the class of which he is a member. Some day in the near future we are expecting to hear of Jack's success in the business world. Jack is going to be an electrical engineer and the class of '21 wishes him great success in his chosen profession.

KATHLEEN LONG

Age 17. Weight 139. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Derita High School, County (1, 2, 3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"Whence is thy learning? Hath thy toil O'er books consumed the midnight oil?"

Here's to Kathleen! She has been with us only one year, but she has found the way into our hearts. She is bent upon getting an education, but we wonder if she will continue in the "way of scholastic knowledge." You should hear her debate, too! She was one of the eleven who tried for the triangular debate this year. Although she didn't come out in the last four, we will always remember her as one of our debaters. We are "mighty" glad Derita sent Kathleen to us.

LOUISE LONG

Age 18. Weight 129. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

*"She could think and ne'er disclose her mind;
See suitors following, and not look behind."*

Does she look serious? Well, don't believe it for Louise is just about the jolliest of our class. She never grumbles, never worries, never lets herself feel blue. Lovable and altogether charming, Louise has stolen many hearts, (not always feminine) in her merry course through high school; but she is unconcerned about such matters. Of her many charms, her sweet disposition is not the least. Have you ever heard Louise talk? Well, Louise declares she has no talent; but take it from us—Louise is certainly gifted in the art of conversation.

MILDRED MELGREEN LUBBOCK

Age 16. Weight 110. Height 5 ft. 4 in.

Atlanta Girls' High School, Georgia, (2, 3); Girls' High School Club (4); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (4).

"She is pretty to walk with and attractive to talk with

And pleasant, too, to think on."

Mildred blew in this year from Atlanta, as gentle as a southern zephyr. She has already worked her way into the hearts of her classmates. Mildred is a true and loyal friend, a good sport, ever ready for a good time. Although she was originally from the North she is now a typical girl of the South with her sweet and friendly disposition. She has made such a big place for herself in C. H. S. that we wonder how Atlanta ever managed when she came to Charlotte. Well, Atlanta, we wouldn't give Mildred back to you for the world!

JESSIE MAE MOORE

Age 17. Weight 103. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Student Council (4).

"She is bright, she is witty, she is pretty, it's true, And we wouldn't swap her for fifty like you."

Although Jessie is not very large in stature she makes herself heard. She has won many friends in high school by her lovable disposition for she is always cheerful, happy and witty. Her chief ambitions are to get through school, to have a good time while doing so, and to be able to play a guitar. We are all sure that the under-graduates will miss this little "happy-go-lucky" creature when she departs.

DAN FENTON MALLERY

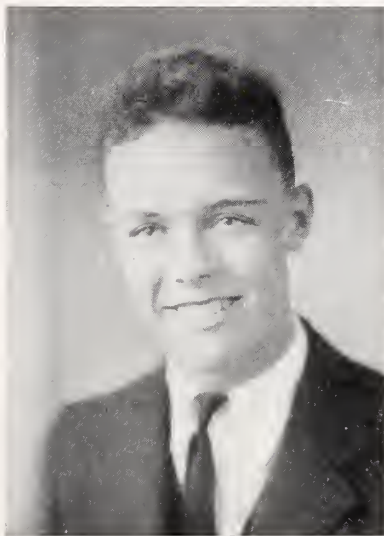

Age 18. Weight 150. Height 6 ft.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Declamation Contest (2); Glee Club (3); Delta Club (3); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Varsity Football (2, 3, 4); Varsity Basket-ball (3, 4); Captain Basket-ball (4); Baseball Squad (1); Varsity Baseball (2, 3); Letter Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Noble by birth, yet nobler by great deeds."

Although he's accused of being a ladies' man, Dan is a most valuable asset to our high school.

He is generally there when C. H. S. tries to put something across and if he has much to do with a thing, you can count on its being done right. Especially inclined to athletics, he has been a star from his Sophomore year and "caps the climax" as captain of the basket-ball team. May he be as successful in life as he has been in athletics!

VIOLA GERTRUDE MANER

Age 17. Weight 111. Height 5 ft. 2 in.

Girls' High School Club (3); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Marshal (3).

*"Here is a maid with auburn hair,
With mien and manner sweet and fair."*

Viola is a little girl with a big personality. That is sufficient to say of any one, but it isn't enough for Viola. She has a heart that is kind and unselfish and she is always willing to lend a helping hand. She is sometimes inclined to be serious but jollity soon appears. Her bright, sunny disposition has won a place for her in the hearts of all.

RUTH ELIZABETH MCCONNELL

Weight 135. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Derita High School, County (1. 2. 3).

"Calm in appearance; motives unknown."

Ruth is wise, she is witty. She always gets her lessons, and in the morning when some of the rest of us reach school and suddenly realize we have neglected our lessons, we always go to Ruth, for she is kind enough to tell us all about them. If Ruth isn't your friend you certainly have missed something for she is an old-time pal. At basketball she is a wonder and when she sits down to the piano, she just makes it simply talk to you.

JENNIE WILLIAMSON MCMICHAEL

Age 18. Weight 135. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"Fair thoughts be your fair pillow."

Talk about being quiet! Jennie never says a word that is not worth while. She may not use her tongue but she speaks with her eyes through those long, beautiful, black lashes. If you don't know her very well, she might fool you with that timid way of hers, for she is a wide-awake capable girl and a dependable student whom we all adore.

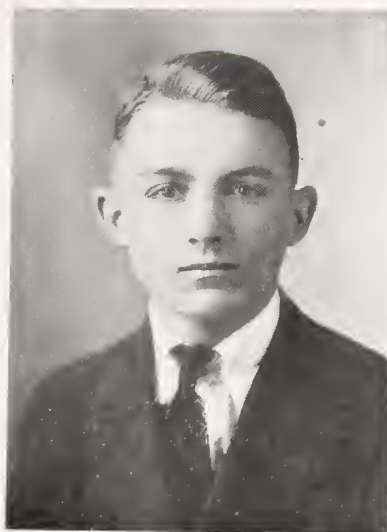

JOHN ALEXANDER McMILLAN

Age 18. Weight 148. Height 5 ft. 11 1-2 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); President John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Delta Club (3); Chief Marshal (3); Snips and Cuts Board (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Treasurer Senior Class (4); Manager Football (4); Varsity Basket-ball (3, 4); Letter Club (4); Secretary-Treasurer Letter Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4); Senior Hi-Y (4); Vice-President Senior Hi-Y Club (4).

*"When a lady's in the case
You know, all other things give place."*

When we start to write up Alex we don't know on what to put the most stress, for it just seems that Alex is in everything that happens at high school. Although he didn't play on the football team he was their capable business manager. But when basket-ball started, lo! we see him on the first team. Books don't bother Alex, especially when there's anything more interesting to do. His favorite occupation is arguing, and we predict that some day Alex will be one of the leading lawyers of his State.

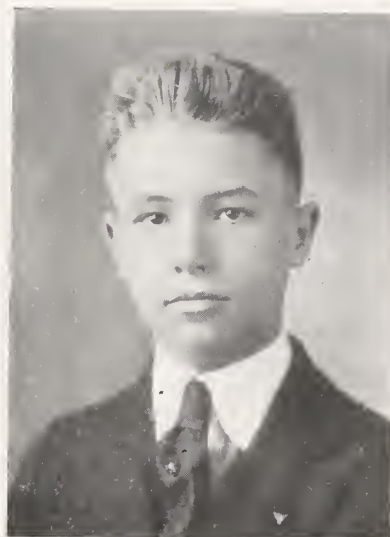

JOHN WOODSON MILSTEAD

Age 16. Weight 150. Height 6 ft.

Athens High School, Georgia (1, 2); President Junior Class; Delta Club (3); Glee Club (3); Football Squad (3); Basket-ball Squad (3); Marshal (3); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Varsity Football (4); Varsity Basket-ball (4); Business Manager Snips and Cuts (4); President Letter Club (4); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Secretary Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Manager Basket-ball (4).

*"Look, he's winding up the watch of his wit;
By and by it will strike."*

Jack is an argumentative lad, and must always have the last word, even if he has to resort to "Huh?" His love of athletics is his ruling passion. When he receives the ball and races down the field, the opposing team usually gives him room. He was never known to compliment a girl, and he entirely disregards the golden maxim, "Faint heart ne'er won fair lady." He has been known to make a date—on a wager. Jack's loyalty to his friends is unquestioned.

ROBERT BRUCE OWENS

Age 17. Weight 150. Height 6 ft.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Orchestra (3, 4); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Music resembles poetry; in each are nameless graces which no methods can teach."

Have you ever seen the advertisement in the Al-Gra-Hy for J. Bruce Owens' orchestra? Well, that's the Bruce we are writing about. He is a perfect genius with his violin, but it is very hard to persuade him to play for us, especially when any of the other sex is about. He doesn't let music take all his time either, for he stands well in his studies, too. Whatever Bruce undertakes, in the future, we know he will succeed.

LOUISE OWENS

Age 16. Weight 105. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Girls' High School Club (1, 2); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls' Choral Club (3).

*"Whate'er she did 'twas done with so much ease,
To her alone 'twas nature to please."*

Well, Louise is well known in the high school, although she did not get the vote for being class loafer. When the clock strikes the last hour, you will see her coming up smiling, those big brown eyes sparkling with delight. As Louise has been in school quite a number of years she won a warm place in all our hearts. She is kind, sympathetic, and always talking about Mr. Graham so that we have about decided that she is his "special."

FRANCES WINSTON PARTLOW

Age 18. Weight 125. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Vice-President Junior Class; John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Music can noble hints impart Engender fury, kindle love."

To know "Gee" is to love her, but, oh, how hard to find her out! She goes along in her quiet, independent way, for Frances has her own opinions of everybody and everything. She is frankness personified and for this very fact we all love her. You should note the lightness of feet when Frances plays for Chapel. Her beautiful brown eyes express her very thoughts.

PRESTON HUGHES PARTRIDGE

Age 17. Weight 140. Height 5 ft. 9 in.

Soldan High School, St. Louis, Mo., (1, 2); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Football Squad (4).

"Oh! he is affected with perpetual spring fever."

"Pat" is certainly not a student who burns the midnight oil, but still he possesses the enviable ability of being able to absorb in its entirety, a full three months' work in a three hours' grind. His performance on the football squad is evidence in itself of his remarkable athletic ability. Pat's prowess in performing the "light fantastic" is quite the talk of the girls and incidentally, so are his lady-killing tactics. All in all "Pat" is a most agreeable fellow, pleasant to associate with, and is popular with everybody.

DAWSON STUART QUERN

Age 16. Weight 128. Height 5 ft. 10 1-2 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Senior Class Lawyer; Triangular Debate (3, 4); Circulation Manager Al-Grady (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Wit and humor belong to genius alone."

Stewart is one of the class wits, and the Seniors are always ready to snicker when he takes the floor. He can be serious, though, and in such a mood he can think up more ways to do it in two seconds than any of the rest of us in a week. He is reliability itself, for you can always depend on Stewart to finish the job. These good qualities, together with his energy and enthusiasm, and skill as a debater, make him deservedly one of our ablest Seniors.

JAMES VICTOR QUERY

Age 17. Weight 152. Height 5 ft. 7 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Vice-President Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Athletic Editor Snips and Cuts (4); Assistant Advertising Manager Al-Grady (4); Marshal (3); Delta Club (3); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Treasurer Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Varsity Baseball (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"For he who is honest is noble Whatever his fortunes or birth."

"Jimmie," although of a somewhat mischievous temperament, has proven to be one of the leaders in our school life. He took part as a member of both football and baseball teams, and was a vital factor in putting the Annual through financially. It will certainly take a good man to fill Jim's shoes after he is gone. All C. H. S. joins in saying "good luck" to you, Jim.

JOHN MICHAEL REED

Age 18. Weight 129. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Three-fifths genius; two-fifths 'fudge.'"

Here we have "John." Don't think because he looks serious that he's mad; it is only that he is such a determined sort of fellow that he forgets to smile. If you want him after school hours he can usually be found on the basket-ball court or discussing the pedigree of his favorite pup. He is good natured, though rather serious. "If John likes you he'll tell you so and if he doesn't, he'll let you know."

MARGARET CONVERSE ROBERTS

Age 16. Weight 121. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Class Historian (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Hers is the power to learn."

Margaret is a capable girl. She is always ready to help when it is for the school, and when you ask Margaret to do something for you, you can know it will be done. Margaret draws, too, and her work deserves credit, for it is exceedingly good. Although Margaret didn't make the girls' basket-ball team, she has the title of the "custodian of the ball." She goes on the trips and she helps entertain the out-of-town girls. The Senior Class is lucky in having her as one of their number.

FLEMING GELDER ROBINSON

Age 17. Weight 150. Height 6 ft.

U. D. C. Medal (1); Declamation Contest (2, 4); President Sophomore Class (2); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Secretary Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); D. A. R. Prize (3); Triangular Debate (3, 4); President Senior Class; President Student Council (4); Delta Club (3); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"Errors, like stars, upon the surface flow;
He who would search for pearls must dive below."*

Gelder is our President, and as such he has made a great success. We do not see how he can remember everything that has come up in our Senior Class meetings, but he has not forgotten anything. Gelder is a typical high school student, too, for he not only does splendid work in all of his subjects, but he has the ability to just go ahead and do anything that we ask him to do. He has represented Charlotte High School for two years in the triangular debate, and has added much glory to the school by his orations and essays.

MARY ROBINSON

Age 16. Weight 123. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Derita High School, County (1, 2, 3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

*"Her spirit is like the lark;
Her principles like the oak."*

You would not think that Mary is so witty but she is never happier than when in possession of a joke—and a good one, too. Mary doesn't play basket-ball but she certainly does hollo for her home team; and this counts a great deal. She always gets her lessons without much toil or care, and when there is a class meeting Mary is always there. We will never regret that Derita sent this fair little girl with light hair and blue eyes to us.

MARIA KIRKLAND ROSE

Age 18. Weight 137. Height 5 ft. 7 in.

Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Treasurer G. H. S. C. (3); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (4); Vice-President Senior Class; Student Council (4); Assistant Editor-in-Chief Snips and Cuts (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"And her gentle mind was such,
That she grew a noble lady,
And the people loved her much."*

If you want anything done, and done well, go to Maria. She has a way of getting work out of other people, too. This Annual teaches us this fact. She is a Senior officer and just has loads to do, so we will not ask her to do any more, but if we should she's just the kind of girl to go on and do it quietly and smilingly and it would be well done, too. Maria is not only a worker, but she's a girl who has an enviable reputation in Charlotte High School because she has endeared herself to teachers and pupils by means of her sweet, gentle manner.

OLIVER REAGAN ROWE

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Varsity Football (4); Letter Club (4); Delta Club (3); Baseball Squad (3, 4).

"He has done the work of a true man Croven him, honor him, love him."

Yes, wit is his middle name. When all of us are worried over our lessons and examinations, Oliver will soon have our minds again on his witty talk and humorous jokes. When he is around he produces an atmosphere of jollity, but oh! he is smart. Why not tell us how you do it, Oliver? We would like to know how to study just a little bit in order to make as high a grade as Oliver.

EVA ESTELLE RUSSELL

Age 16. Weight 98. Height 5 ft. 2 in.

Girls' High School Club (3, 4); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"Although she is small, and hardly grew at all, If she were not on the list, she would be sadly missed."

Eva can work when she really wants to, and believes in studying hard enough to pass examinations. She enjoys life the rest of the time. Her hobby is French (?). Eva is a sincere and loyal friend, quiet and unobtrusive, and always ready for a good time. She is always in a good humor, sees the sunny side of everything, and has never been known to have a grouch. We think she makes an altogether agreeable and satisfactory schoolmate.

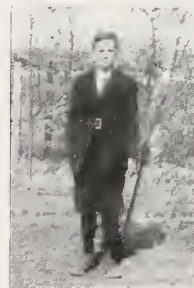

THOMAS WILTON SAMMONDS

Age 15. Weight 90. Height 4 ft. 9 in.

Sharon High School, County (1, 2); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

*"In small proportion we just beauties see,
And in short measures life may perfect be."*

You wouldn't think to see Wilton that he belongs in the Senior class but height doesn't count for everything. We'll bet there is nobody who could stand up against him in a French match or would even try to, for that manner. A good disposition goes a long way in this world and Wilton certainly has the best disposition you ever saw. Wilton comes in every morning from the country and gets here on time, too—something we can't say for those who live only a few blocks away. We are proud to have Wilton a member of our class.

OLIVE SCARRETT

Age 17. Weight 129. Height 5 ft. 3 1-2 in.

Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Basket-ball Squad (3); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"In the golden chain of life, friendship is the brightest link."

Do you want to laugh? She is a jolly person and is ever entertaining the Seniors by relating some incident or joke with a regular old-fashioned laugh in it. Did you say class spirit? She is one of the "peppiest" and liveliest workers for the Annual in the Senior Class. Added to Olive's other admirable qualities is the quality of being a sincere and loyal friend.

MILDRED ELIZABETH SHEPHERD

Age 17. Weight 113. Height 5 ft. 3 1-2 in.

Secretary Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Treasurer Sophomore Class; Marshal (3); Business Manager Al-Graily (4); Varsity Basket-ball (2, 3, 4); Captain Basket-ball (3); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Eyes that could see her on this summer day Might find it hard to turn another way."

When we think of Mildred, we just naturally exclaim: "Oh! that hair and those eyes!" That delightful little twist she gives the ball in a game positively makes our hearts jump with joy. Although "Shep's" studying is not quite up to the mark, when we look at her, we can scarcely keep back the thought—what's the use of study? Mildred is just a happy, care-free girl, whom we all love, and whose cheerful disposition we all envy.

MINNIE SILVERSTEIN

Age 16. Weight 129. Height 5 ft. 5 1-2 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"In her eyes a thought grew sweeter and sweeter, Deepening like the dawn."

How can we describe Minnie? Dark hair, dark eyes, always smiling, but these words hardly describe her in the way we would like to. She is one of our most valued commercial students and will certainly come out ahead in the business world. As to disposition, you would have to search far and wide to find a girl possessing a better one, and on this account Minnie is a favorite among her classmates.

ROBERT HURDLE SMITH

Age 17. Weight 135. Height 5 ft. 7 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4).

"Diligence is the mother of good fortune."

Robert, better known as "Bob," is one of our most industrious students, and has the ability to "stick to" his job, whatever it may be. If you want a job done, and done well, just leave it to "Bob;" he is always ready to help out willingly and faithfully. This "sticking to it" ability is rare, and will be of great value to him as he goes through life. "Stick to it," "Bob," the class of '21 expects great things of you.

MARY LILLY SOSSOMON

Age 17. Weight 120. Height 5 ft. 2 in.

Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Art Editor Snips and Cuts (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"Who deserves will, needs not others' praise."

Mary is all right. That expresses every one's opinion of her. She is as clever and smart as they make them and her art work is of the best. She has one of the kindest of hearts and will do anything in the world for you. Mary's ambition is to become a great artist and in this she has our best wishes for a successful future.

JACK SPENSER

Age 15. Weight 116. Height 5 ft. 3 1-2 in.

Secretary Sophomore Class; John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Editor-in-Chief Al-Gra-Hy (4).

"His wisdom can not be judged by his stature."

Jack is undoubtedly one of the best informed students in the whole school. He is able to discuss with surprising ability any subject brought up and is a very interesting conversationalist. As editor-in-chief of the Al-Gra-Hy, he has made an enviable record in the promotion of this new school publication. He is an excellent student and remarkably original in his ideas. His future career is destined to be extraordinary if it can be judged by his accomplishments thus far.

MARGARET JANE SQUIRES

Age 17. Weight 129. Height 5 ft. 4 in.

Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4).

"The mildest manner and the gentlest heart."

Margaret is a kind-hearted girl, and she's always ready to help some one. But oh, how she does love to talk in study hall! Talking is no job for Margaret because she always has something to say. We think she is going off to college next year, and she has an idea that she wants to teach. Well, if she does, she certainly will be loved by all of her pupils, for she has a lovely disposition. Margaret is the kind of girl we want for a friend.

LETA MAY TURNER

Age 18. Weight 125. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"A true woman; modest, simple, and sweet."

Although Leta is very quiet, those who know her love her, because of her kindness and gentle disposition. We have never seen a frown on her face. She stands well in her studies but, is never too busy or in too big a hurry to listen to, or tell, a good joke. If you want to hear Leta laugh, just let something funny happen in French class, and you will be sure to hear from her. We don't know how she can remember people's birthdays so well, but she is always the first to wish us a happy birthday when we get to school. Those who are with her next year may count themselves fortunate.

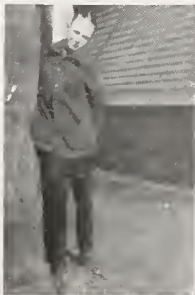

JAMES TROTTER

Age 16. Weight 118. Height 5 ft. 8 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4).

"Give him all kindness, I had rather have Such men my friend, than enemies."

James is a boy whom on first acquaintance you will "put down" a just quiet boy. Upon further acquaintance, however, you decide that he is "regular" boy, for he really and truly loves fun, and helps to make it. James is not all fun, however, for he gets along well in all of his work, and with very little trouble on his part. We feel that he will do credit to C. H. S. in the coming years.

MARTHA ELOISE WALL

Age 17. Weight 113. Height 5 ft. 3 1-2 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (4); Girls' High School Club (4); Fort Smith High School, Arkansas (1); Pryor High School, Oklahoma (2, 3).

*"What's the use of worrying, it never was worth while
So pack up your troubles and smile, smile, smile."*

There came from Oklahoma a beautiful little Indian maid, who is so sweet and so attractive that we feel very fortunate in having her with us this year. She's the best old sport in this world—always ready to jump when fun and frolic are in the wind, but when study time comes, well, that's entirely different. These qualities combined with her cleverness have won her many friends who will stick by her to the end. Lois, we are all for you.

MARY WASHAM

Age 17. Weight 118. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

*"Do not smile at me that boast her off,
For thou shalt find she will out-strip all praise."*

We call her "Our Mary" and "Encyclopedia." Mary can always decide our English questions and use some big words in doing it. She has such a sweet disposition and winning personality that one can't help loving her after once knowing her. She is quiet, graceful, and studious and always has a smile and a bit of wit for her friends. Although Mary doesn't speak very often, when she does speak everybody sits up and listens.

ONA MARIE WELCH

Age 16. Weight 140. Height 5 ft. 6 in.

Derita High School, County (1, 2, 3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

*"She says what she thinks,
And speaks it from her heart."*

Ona is a sensible, attractive girl, and you who are numbered among her friends may be called fortunate. She believes in studying, but, "When pleasure and study come to clash, she lets study go to smash." However, when Ona sees a thing must be done she is a girl who can do it, and will do it.

FRIEDA ELIZABETH WHITE

Age 16. Weight 120. Height 5 ft. 3 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"I love quiet solitude, and such society as is quiet, nice, and good."

Frieda is a girl who is loved by all; one who is quiet in manner, but who always wears a welcome smile of friendship. We all envy her beautiful black curly hair and dark eyes. Frieda never says much when she's in a crowd, but when you're with her alone he's the jolliest of the jolly. She possesses a disposition that is always and ever the same. If you should ever look for Frieda you would usually find her either playing the piano or seeing Norma Talmadge.

VIRGINIA LE GRANDE WHITLOCK

Age 16. Weight 122. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Alexander Graham Literary Society (3, 4); Girls' High School Club (2, 3, 4); Freshman Club; Vice-President Junior Class; Social Editor Al-Gra-Hy (4); Varsity Basketball (3, 4); Athletic Association (3, 4); Secretary and Treasurer Athletic Association (4).

*"And oh! she dances such a way,
No sun upon an Easter day
Is half so fine a sight."*

Bubbling over with fun—that's Virginia. Her first element of attraction is her winning smile. Her school spirit together with her care-free disposition makes an impression upon every one with whom she comes in contact. Can she dance? It seems so, as she was voted the best girl dancer in Senior Class. Fond of athletics? The girls' basketball team couldn't do without her. Just note the whole-heartedness with which she goes into a game. Examinations never seem to worry her; she dives right in and comes up smiling.

EUGENE WILLIAMS

Age 18. Weight 167. Height 6 ft.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Treasurer Junior Class.

"Friends I have made, whom envy must commend."

Eugene, better known as "Gene," looks a little hard at first glance, but he is very kind-hearted and harmless. He received the title of loafer in the Senior class vote, but it would be more appropriate for him to be called the class chauffeur, because whenever we want to go anywhere he is always ready to take us. In work "Gene" is a slacker; in athletics he is a sympathizer; in everyday life he is a lady killer and a breather of midnight air. Notwithstanding his apparent laziness he will be some big automobile man or something yet if he will only try, because in the words of Miss Bertha "he has the brains and it is only necessary that he use them."

MINNIELEE WILLIAMS

Age 18. Weight 147. Height 5 ft. 5 in.

Nevin High School, County (1, 2); John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

"The best mirror is an old friend."

Dependability is half of MinnieLee's name! MinnieLee is a splendid girl and always does her best. She lends a helping hand to any one who needs her. She has such a sweet disposition and always has such a pleasant smile on her face that she has endeared herself to pupils and teachers alike. Did you ever see her when she was not in a good humor?

SUDIE CORRELL WILSON

Age 19. Weight 137. Height 5 ft. 4 in.

Derita High School, County (1, 2, 3); Alexander Graham Literary Society (4).

*"Her hair is black, her eyes are brown,
She loves to dance the whole year round."*

To look at Sudie you would not think she could cheer so well at a ball game, but when you hear some one laugh loud just open your eyes and you will surely see Sudie there. She is very popular among the girls and especially so among the boys.

The two things she likes best are: telling jokes and dancing. Sudie is one member of our class who has put into practice the good old adage, "Laugh and the world laughs with you." Sudie is not overly fond of hard work, yet she even manages to pass. Wherever fortune may lead her, we surely predict a path of sunshine and good cheer.

JOSEPH OWEN WOODSIDE

Age 17. Weight 142. Height 5 ft. 5 1-2 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (3, 4); Marshal (3); Orchestra (3, 4); Comic Editor Al-Gra-Hy (4); Assistant Business Manager Snips and Cuts (4); Baseball Squad (3, 4); Delta Club (3); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); President Senior Hi-Y Club; Cheer Leader (4); Student Council (4).

"Describe him who can,

An abridgment of all that was pleasant in man."

Do you want to know a certain cure for the blues? Listen, "J. Owen" is the only certain cure for the blues I know; just talk to him for about five minutes and ask him, "Who's sweet?" and I'm sure you will go away smiling. He's the sort of person that even a mere acquaintance calls friend, for he is every one's friend, and always on hand to do a good deed for those in need. He has a hand in everything from our Annual on down. We expect great things of him in the future.

HENRY FORNEY WYLY, JR.

Age 18. Weight 164. Height 5 ft. 9 1-2 in.

Greensboro High School, N. C. (1); Charlotte University School, N. C. (2); McGuire's University School, Richmond, Va. (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Art Editor Snips and Cuts (4).

"Haste thee, Nymph, and bring with thee, Jest and youthful jollity."

Anybody who doesn't want to laugh had better not come around Henry (better known as "Heinie"), because if they do, they surely will do something they don't want to do. "Heinie" was not satisfied with graduating from a Richmond school, so he came to old C. H. S. to finish his high school days (we think). His good nature and friendliness have won for him many friends in the school. He is a good artist, as one may find out by looking at the drawings in this annual. He is also musically inclined, as every one knows, who has heard him play the drums in our orchestra. We are very glad to have you in the class of '21, "Heinie."

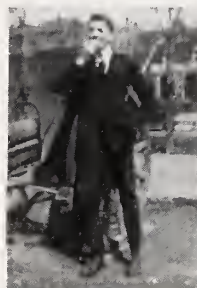

DAVID WATT YATES

Age 16. Weight 147. Height 6 ft. 2 in.

John Charles McNeill Literary Society (3); Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Glee Club (3); Marshal (3); President Cameron Morrison Literary Society (4); Delta Club (3); Senior Hi-Y Club (4); Student Council (4); Athletic Association (3, 4); President Athletic Association (4); Cheer Leader (4); Football Squad (2); Varsity Basket-ball (3, 4); Letter Club (4).

"O, he sits high in all the people's hearts."

How hard a matter it is to be at the top in studies and take an active part in the high school life, too. But Dave does both. Being a born leader and especially good in musical and athletic lines, he is a real all around boy. He is called a "redeeming feature," and such he really is. He is known to be a sticker and climber, and if he sticks and climbs in life as he has in school in a few years he will be at the topmost perch. We expect great things from Dave.

Class Song

TUNE: "A Perfect Day"

When we come to the end of our high school days,
And our hope on the future depends ;
May the good we have learned direct our ways,
Keep our hearts brave and true to the end.
O! Alma Mater, fare thee well,
Thy praises we'll always sing,
To thee we will be ever true,
To thee we'll be ever true.

'Tis now farewell, teachers, classmates, dear,
The parting brings us pain ;
May the chords of love bind us ever near,
As in mem'ry we shall meet again.
O! Alma Mater, fare thee well,
Thy praises we'll always sing,
Though we go beyond thy loving care,
Thy interests we'll ever share.

—RUTH McCONNELL, '21.

To C. H. S.

Oh dear old Charlotte High School days!
As long as life shall last
We know that we shall sing your praise
And hold your memory fast.
Oh High School forget not our presence here;
We'll crown thee as our queen;
For here since our early days of youth
We've come and heard and seen.

A bit of gladness after sorrow,
A bit of sunshine after rain,
A bit of sports—football and socials,
While the studies waned.
You gave to us earth's golden lore
And memory's golden light;
To you we pledge our loyal hopes;
Long be your glory bright!

But we've come to the end of our journey,
With an ache for the days of the past;
Let us pause for a fleeting moment,
While the minutes so cherished last.
Charlotte High School and teachers dear,
Our thoughts with thee shall dwell;
Sadly we turn and leave thee,
Sadly we say farewell.

—MARTHA L. HARRIS, Class Poet.

On the fifth day of the ninth month of the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and seventeen, the good ship Charlotte High School stood moored at the wharf of a new school year. Many people, among them our parents, gazed at us in wonder as we stepped aboard the ship with our passports to the Eighth Grade in our hands. It was rumored that we were going upon a voyage through the four seas in quest of a wonderful key, called a Diploma, which would open for us the doors to a wonderous place called college.

Many passengers were taken aboard the ship and we each enrolled among the list of those who should make the voyage. As I was the first to enroll, upon me fell the task of writing this log for the voyage.

We all made friends quickly with those whom we had not met before, and were very happy and enthusiastic, questioning everyone as to the captain and all the ship's officers; as to the incidents which might befall us; as to the duties aboard ship which must be performed to accomplish the voyage in four years' time. Our fears of shipwreck were entirely wiped away in the assurance that so able a staff of seamen had us in charge. There were naturally a few cases of seasickness and various ones were tempted to throw up Algebra, Latin, and disagreeable dishes, and toss some of their best belongings overboard in times of a rough sea, but the stewardess assured them calmly but firmly that they would only have to consume these indigestibles over and over until they were perfectly assimilated, and so they bravely managed to hold them down.

The usual intimacy of shipboard soon sprang up among us voyagers, and we have been loyal shipmates ever since. We crossed the Freshman Sea almost before we were aware of it, and had stopped at the first vacation port, and acquired some new officers, a few new shipmates, but lost more.

We now entered upon the Sophomore Sea with great pleasure, ready to meet and overcome all new duties.

*"We were neither man nor woman;
We were neither brutes nor human;
We were Sophs."*

A rule had been made in our Freshman voyage that, if every three months we made an average of ninety or over in our duties, we would be free from a day of extra hard labor on that duty. This rule was especially valuable to us now, as the duties were harder and we wished to get out of them.

About the middle of this voyage, the engine broke down and the influenza waves were rolling up on the deck of the ship, so we stopped at a halfway port and had a short vacation. We then started on, and towards the end of the year, a great banquet was given at the death of Julius Cæsar, to which all the officers were invited.

At the end of the voyage we stopped at the second Vacation Port, and here we acquired a New Captain and some new shipmates, and lost more shipmates than we gained.

When we entered the Junior Sea a great madness seized many of the boys and some of the girls, which the ship's doctor, called in to diagnose the case, pronounced to be "athletics." "This is a disease," said he, "which must be allowed to run its natural course as no remedy is known." Among the boys this took the form of "football," and among the girls, "basket-ball." While convalescent, many parties and dances were given on shipboard, "making a happy time for all."

Toward the end of the voyage, because of crowded conditions, we were transferred to the beautiful new ship, "The Alexander Graham High School." There were many changes in our mode of living, but we enjoyed them and they were for the better.

We finished this voyage with great lightness of heart because we would soon start out over the Senior Sea.

At the beginning of our Senior voyage, we placed at the mast-head, a great banner of green and white with "Carpe Diem" written thereon, which same we had adapted as our class colors and motto, to proclaim to all who we were.

Then the "football" madness was growing worse, and so many were affected by it that there were chosen from among us: Owen Woodside, David Yates, and Rutledge Dudley, to lead us in our shouts of joy and jubilation, at the games played with those stricken with this same disease and who were from ships in the same sea. At the basket-ball games we were also led by Owen in our rejoicings. Many were the parties as we sailed the Seniors' Sea; many were the good times, long to be remembered.

And on this, our last lap, when we so reasonably expected our full share of the usual "Senior Privileges," as some sort of compensation for the sufferings in our past and which we had heard and dreamed of all through our voyage, what have we received? Alas! In Charlotte High School, "Senior Privileges" seem this year to have become as obsolete words and to have been stricken entirely from the vocabulary of the ship's officers. Is it any wonder that we are not always gay?

Furthermore, we are graduating and we need many dollars to publish our "Annual." And so a great atrocity, called a "Senior Play" will be given to help fill the coffers. In the meantime, the girls sell sandwiches and candy to their shipmates, who are always ready to eat, and the boys are selling bar-r-rels of weenies and "loads" of mustard and many rolls to rival the peanut man and fill the Senior treasury.

We have found it difficult to persuade our officers that we are not the same boys in knee trousers and the same girls in pigtails and short dresses who first came to them four years ago. Some even yet address us by our Christian names, which otherwise we felt we might have entirely forgotten.

It would take too long to read the complete log of this eventful voyage. It would be very interesting to tell the many delightful experiences, the many wonderful lessons, the many changes in the passenger list, but after all it has but little vital significance except to ourselves, the few who will soon land at Commencement Wharf. We must not divulge the secrets of our shipmates. We must not forget the loyalty due to our class colors, so valiantly flying at the masthead. The best and most vital history of any person or thing is never given to the world. So must it be with the Class of '21.

It has been a most wonderful voyage and we have accumulated many souvenirs, striving, however, to guard against excess baggage. We have not faced any gale which we were not able to withstand. We have not been wrecked upon the shoals of any threatening task. The tides of our averages have continued to ebb and flow; the waves of mathematical problems have kept up their ceaseless motion and commotion; the billows of examinations have sometimes tried their worst to overwhelm us; but none of them has succeeded; we have astonished the officers with all our amazing knowledge and startling information that we have furnished them from time to time in our various examination papers. We have sympathized with the seasick passengers, that made up the various new classes. We have enjoyed the successful experiences of those who have landed on other shores.

We will go on writing new logs of greater adventure, and more wonderful discovery, for while the voyage of high school life is at an end, the voyage of real life will soon begin.

"There was nothing more left for them to know—

They must pass on Commencement Day."

—M. C. R., Class Historian, '21.

CLASS WILL

March 5, 1921.

We, the Class of '21 of the Alexander Graham High School, being of a sound and disposing state of mind, but mindful of the uncertainties of this, our high school life, do make, publish, and decree this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by us.

Item I: We do hereby will and bequeath to the coming lower classmen, namely, the Juniors, our precious Senior privilege, that of entering the chapel at recess, with the admonition that they do not neglect this priceless jewel and have it snatched away by the authorities that be.

Item II: We do also will and bequeath to the said Juniors, the responsibilities which the Seniors by reason of their age do hold. We wish to impress upon the said Juniors, the influence which they will possess and warn them that this influence, whether good or bad, is reflected on the whole school. We do also leave to the said Juniors the privilege of publishing an Annual and the attendant labor of holding rummage sales, beauty contests, and selling that article of food commonly known and named as "hot dogs" for the benefit of the finances of said Annual.

In like manner, we do also bequeath to the said Juniors the editing of our school magazine, the "Al-Gra-Hy," with strict instructions that they publish regularly this world-famous publication.

Item III: We do also will and bequeath to the heretofore mentioned Juniors, the good looks of the Senior boys, believing justly as we do, that such a property should be bequeathed where it is most needed.

Item IV: We do also will and bequeath to the heretofore mentioned Juniors our Senior Announcement Board, with the most implicit command that they observe this board frequently in order that they may keep abreast of the times and also that they may be reminded of a class meeting. We do also leave to our worthy successors, the Juniors, the privilege of missing their lunch twice a week by reason of their attendance at such meetings.

Item V: We do bequeath, with the greatest sorrow and reluctance, upon the heads of the often heretofore mentioned Juniors, our famous and oft abused Senior dignity and, likewise, our self-importance. It is our earnest wish and hope that our successors will at least make an attempt to reach the high water mark which has been set by us.

Of our wonderful cleverness and ability we do make no disposition to the said Juniors, knowing full well the hardship we would thereby entail upon their feebleness in making the vain attempt to imitate our brilliant achievements.

Item VI: We do hereby bequeath and leave to Mr. McCall—more like one of us than a stern, harsh principal—to all our teachers and to all the lower classmen, our most earnest and best wishes for the future. We do leave to the faculty our heart-felt gratitude for the manner in which they have led us through a miry road of difficulties into the pleasant paths of knowledge. We most sincerely hope that the faculty in the future years will not entirely forget the good wishes which the Class of '21 does now bestow upon them.

—THE CLASS OF '21 (Seal).

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Senior Class to be its last will and testament in the presence of us who, at its request and in its presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names, the day and year first above written.

WITNESSES:

D. STEWART QUERN, Attorney.

MALVENA ALEXANDER, Secretary.

INDIVIDUAL CLASS WILL

The following members of the Class of '21 do hereby will and bequeath to their fitting successors, namely, the following Juniors, the following characteristics mentioned below:

Virginia Whitlock to Ruth Nucholls: Inability to control her eyes.

Jack London to Robert Buck: His business ability.

Mary Sossomon to Virginia Clements: Her Cleopatra-like vampishness.

Gelda Robinson to Aubrey Chrismon: His high marks.

Dan Mallery to Everett Bierman: His athletic ability.

"Putt" Dudley to Sarah A. Mayer: Her popularity.

Robert Dixon to John Thompson: His famous toddling.

Caroline Lambeth to Marie Hagood: Her blushing.
Preston Partridge to Robert Dye: His lady-killing tactics.
Mildred Lubbock to Virginia Loving: Her attractiveness.
Anthony Eddy to Allan Bryan: His habit of loafing.
Zelda Garrison to Susie Dell Chapman: Her skill in shorthand.
Martha Harris to Myrtle De Armond: Her nimble fingers.
Bruce Owens to Hal Kemp: His ability to manage an orchestra.
Margaret Jones to Elizabeth Gieger: Her ability in lecturing mere men.
Jack Spenser to George Lowe: His brilliancy as a student.
Wilton Samonds to Paul Carmichael: His size.
Mildred Shepherd to Margaret Henderson: Her intelligence.
Mary Keesler to Maude Roberts: Her good looks.
Martha Jamison to Mary Edwards: Her cuteness.
Jack Milstead to Tommy Clarkson: His nonchalance.

—(Signed) THE INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF '21.

PROPHECY.

It is Spring again, the earth is arrayed in blossoms and young foliage, and the air is laden with their fragrance. The fleecy clouds go swiftly by, and frequently we are sailing through them.

The Trans-Continental Air Express is due in Washington within the hour. Below we see valleys carpeted with green and dotted with wild flowers, the children playing in the sunshine, and the farmer's wife waving a salute as we sail by; a trail of smoke from the Railway Limited resembling a mammoth serpent crawling through space in the rear; and now, in the distance, barely discernable, the dome of the Capitol—my first glimpse of Washington, where President Gelder Robinson, Congressman Jack Spenser; Stuart Quern and Jack Milstead, the leading lawyers of the Nation's Capital, are bringing to pass that which was predicted by the Class Prophetess of '21.

Baltimore, our next stop. We tarry long enough to shake hands with Miss Rutledge Dudley, Physical Director of the Y. W. C. A., and her assistants, Misses Margaret Brown and Mary Keesler, who inform us that Dan Mallery is Chief Playground Director of Baltimore.

In Philadelphia, we are greeted by Miss Minnie Silverstein, Private Secretary to John Wannamaker, and Mr. Franklin Davidson, who is in charge of the mail order department.

Arriving in New York, we attend Grand Opera and hear our old friends, Sarah Ledwell, Loraine Bates, and Elizabeth Ledwell sing, while Miss Annie May Hayes presided at the piano.

Sunday, raining, and confined to our hotel, the Waldorf-Astoria, but heard the morning sermon of Dr. David Yates, of Trinity Church by Amplified Telephone installed in our rooms.

Monday evening, we pressed the button and upon the wall was shown the latest movie, starring Miss Frances Partlow and Miss Viola Maner. During the same evening, we visited the Rappe Fashion Show at the invitation of Miss Mary Sossomon, the chief designer, and were glad to meet again Misses Eloise Wall, Elizabeth Fore and Margaret Harrelson, who are her assistants. As we were going down Fifth Avenue, we met Professors Richard Littlejohn and James Query, members of the faculty of Harvard.

Atlantic City, with its throngs of hilarious humanity, is indeed a refuge to the soul with a melancholy inclination. We stopped at the Marlborough-Blenheim, of which Alexander McMillan is the manager, with his able assistant, Mrs. McMillan (nee Miss Mildred Shepherd).

At the theatre, we found Henry Wyly and Marcus Hawkins star comedians.

The next morning we received by mail, a Charlotte Observer, and in the social column we read that Mrs. J. Owen Woodside (nee Miss Mildred Lubbock) is visiting relatives in New York; that Dr. Woodside is a skilled surgeon, connected with the Mayo Sanatorium. We also read that Miss Olive Scarratt has accepted the position as head nurse in Bellevue Hospital, New York. The Governor of North Carolina, Frank Ivy, will speak at twentieth of May celebration and will be introduced by Mayor Jack London. Miss Maria Rose, returned missionary to China, will lecture at the City Auditorium. Misses Lucy Holmes Carson, Louise Gibbon, Virginia Whitlock, and Margaret Roberts have returned recently from Washington, where they attended the Inaugural Ball. Misses Margaret Jones and Sarah Dunlap will attend the Suffragette's Convention at Los Angeles. Miss Malvena Alexander is spending a year in Europe for study of music. Reading further I notice that Miss Martha Harris has just completed a book of poems, which the critics consider excellent; also that Mr. Edgar Curlee received first prize in an art contest in Paris.

The day is ideal and as we rise above the city, homeward bound, we wave farewell to the boardwalk and its gaieties: Just a few hours and we will be home again, and the tales we'll tell of the sights we've seen will be varied and never ending; yet, with all the wonders of the larger cities, I still agree with John Howard Payne, that "There's no place like home"; especially when home is in Charlotte.

—M. E. B., Class Prophetess.

Junior Class History

One bright September morning in 1918 a crowd of eager boys and girls came to their future literary home, the Charlotte High School. Our foster father, Mr. Bill Davis greeted us smilingly; our elder brothers and sisters, the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors welcomed us with a knowing grin. As "Freshies," we were green, we admit; nevertheless we were thrilled with the charm of mystery and filled with the thought of importance. Life moved smoothly for three months until crash! "Exams!" How this ghastly figure startled us! But finally after a horrible week, the terrible creature passed, the light of a new day dawned. How happy we were! How bright was the world! Before the close of our first year we had to meet two more such creatures. However, we learned one supreme lesson—the real joy of being a student of C. H. S.

The next September we came together again, this time not as timid Freshmen, but as "world wise" Sophomores. The year was marked by two important changes: first, the exchange of our father Mr. Davis, for a new one, Mr. Fred McCall; second, the transfer of our residence on Brevard street for a grander one on East Morehead street. What an air of pride possessed us! In the morning instead of "Bang-Bang," we heard "Bing-Bing"; at the close of each period a tiny brown box on the wall sang "Buzz-Buzz."

When we assembled in 1920, we were Juniors! The history of this year contains two very important developments; first, the introduction of physical culture in the class room, and second, the beginning of a student government system.

We have, during our three years at High School, endeavored to enter heartily into every progressive measure, and we hope the school will find our presence as a valuable asset to its betterment now and in years to come.

The Men That Don't Fit In

There's a race of men that don't fit in,
A race that can't stay still;
So they break the hearts of kith and kin,
And they roam the world at will.
They range the field and they rove the flood,
And they climb the mountain's crest;
Theirs is the curse of the gypsy blood,
And they don't know how to rest.

If they just went straight they might go far;
They are strong and brave and true;
But they're always tired of the things that are,
And they want the strange and new.
They say: "Could I find my proper groove,
What a deep mark I would make!"
So they chop and change, and each fresh move
Is only a fresh mistake.

And each forgets, as he strips and runs
With a brilliant, fitful pace,
It's the steady, quiet, plodding ones
Who win in the life-long race.
And each forgets that his youth has fled,
Forgets that his prime is past;
Till he stands one day, with a hope that's dead,
In the glare of the truth at last.

He has failed, he has failed; he has missed his chance;
He has just done things by half.
Life's been a jolly good joke on him,
And now is the time to laugh.
Ha, ha! He is one of the Legion Lost;
He was never meant to win;
He's a rolling stone; and it's bred in the bone;
He's a man who won't fit in.

Sophomore Class History

It was in 1919, on a bright September morning, that we all awoke with the happy thought that that was the day for our enrollment in the Charlotte High School. We went forth with the thought that on that day we were going to begin a new life and be the leading factors in the school, but soon we were doomed to disappointment, because before the morning was very old, some of us were very sore. All this soreness was due to the Soph reception held for us. After the first few weeks everything went along all right, but we found out that we were not as important as we thought we were.

This year, all of us awoke with a very happy thought, but it was a different one from the one we had last year. We realized that we were Sophomores and that we were going to give the hard knocks, instead of receiving them. We had a very nice time giving them, too, and entirely forgot the "golden rule." The year has gone along very smoothly.

One of the main things we have to look back on is the fact that the Juniors were overwhelmed by us in the Class Basket-ball games. If we keep up the good work that we have done for the last two years when we are Seniors, Charlotte High School will have its best Senior Class.

Eldorado

Gaily bedight,
A gallant knight,
In sunshine and in shadow,
Had journeyed long,
Singing a song,
In search of Eldorado.

But he grew old,
This knight so bold,
And o'er his heart a shadow
Fell as he found
No spot of ground
That looked like Eldorado.

And, as his strength
Failed him at length,
He met a pilgrim shadow;
"Shadow," said he,
"Where can it be,
This land of Eldorado?"

"Over the Mountains
Of the Moon,
Down the Valley of the Shadow,
Ride, boldly ride,"
The shade replied—
"If you seek for Eldorado!"

Freshman Class History

All fresh and some fair, we, the Class of '24, have completed our year of planting the seeds of scholarship which we hope to see grow through the budding, blooming and maturing stages of our Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years.

Even now we think we see among us signs of genius, and perhaps of beauty, too, for was it not from among us that C. H. S. voted its prettiest girl? And was not our dramatic ability so appreciated that we received a prize on "Stunt Night"?

But modesty is becoming to the Fresh, so we will leave it to others to sing our praises, and we only hope that in the years to come they will have whereof to sing.

The Dreams Ahead

What would we do in this world of ours,
Were it no for the dreams ahead?
For thorns are mixed with the blooming flowers,
No matter which path we tread.

And each of us has his golden goal,
Stretching far into the years;
And ever he climbs with a hopeful soul,
With alternate smiles and tears.

That dream ahead is what holds him up
Through the storms of a ceaseless fight;
When his lips are pressed to the wormwood's cup,
And clouds shut out the light.

To some it's a dream of high estate,
To some it's a dream of wealth;
To some it's a dream of a truce with Fate,
In a constant search for health.

To some it's a dream of home and wife,
To some it's a crown above;
The dreams ahead are what make each life—
The dreams—and faith—and love!

COACH HUGH MURRILL, JR.

Coach Murrill, one of the best coaches Charlotte High School has ever had, took a bunch of inexperienced men and made a football team that brought honor and glory to himself and to the Charlotte High School for its clean playing and sportsmanship. "Coach" knows every clip and angle of the game. He believes in clean playing and in giving every man on the squad an equal chance. The school is indebted to him for giving up his business temporarily to coach the team. Here's to the team he coaches next year!

ALEX McMILLAN
Manager

Did you ever hear anyone knock our football manager? No; and you never will. "Nappy" handled his job to perfection with the result that he is the best manager Charlotte has ever had. Not only did he arrange an excellent schedule and provide the team with the best accommodations and give them the time of their lives on the trips, but also he succeeded in making the season the most successful from a financial standpoint Charlotte has ever had. May we have many like him.

ALLAN BRYAN "C"

Weight, 150. Quarterback. Height, 6 ft.

Our quarter was a man who had had a little experience, having played on the Duval High School team of Jacksonville, Fla., for two years. He ran his team well throughout the season, although he was kept out of one or two games on account of sickness. He never lost his head, no matter how much the opponent ragged him. Had it not been for his coolness Charlotte's record of games won and lost might have been different. He will greatly strengthen the team next year.

EVERETT BIERMAN "C"

Weight, 168. Halfback. Height, 6 ft.

Old reliable "Beefy." When the team is in need of a first down, he is always called upon to make it and seldom fails. He doesn't know what quit means. In backing up a line he has few equals. His remarkable line smashing was the outstanding feature in his playing this year. The best lines in the State could not hold him. The heavier the line, the heavier he hit. He was in the game from the start to the finish and too much credit cannot be given him for his playing.

JACK MILSTEAD "C"

Weight, 143. Halfback. Height, 6 ft.

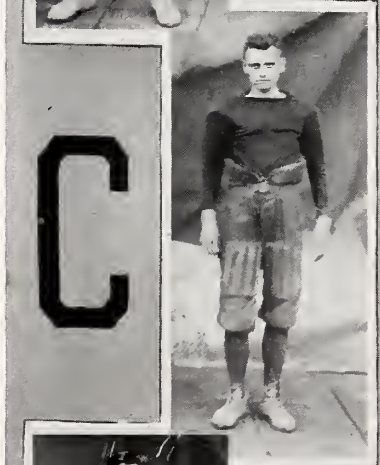

Jack had the fighting spirit that kept up the team. On end runs and intercepting forward passes, he was unsurpassed. He was the terror of opposing ends. Jack was called upon to play quarterback in the Winston game and with only three days' practice he led his team like an "old timer." He leaves a hole in the team that will be hard to fill. Next year some college is going to have a good man playing in her back-field.

PRESTON PARTRIDGE "C"

Weight, 140. Fullback. Height, 5 ft. 9 in.

"Pat" came to us this season with a great reputation derived from his playing on the St. Louis High School team the previous year, and has nobly sustained it. In addition to his work on the defense he is an unusually hard man to stop on a line buck or end run, in spite of his light weight. His work in the Winston game in Charlotte and the C. M-N. A. game deserve special mention, while his playing in every game of the season was of the highest order.

BEN DOAR "C"

Weight, 153. Fullback. Height, 5 ft. 5 in.

Returning to school after an absence of two years "DeBose" took his place to fight for the blue and gray. Having helped C. H. S. to win two football championships, when we tried for the third it was no fault of his that we failed. He was a hard fighter, a fierce tackler, and brilliant receiver of passes. He was the despair of many a back-field man. Being in the play every minute of the game, he would punt and then go down and make the tackle just to keep from being idle. He was a strong factor in the Charlotte line-up.

BYRD CRAYTON "C*" (Captain)

Weight, 147. Left End. Height 5 ft. 7 in.

This year "Tootie" developed into one of the best ends that ever wore the "C." The man who could get around his end is yet to be found and the way he got down under punts was a delight to every lover of football. At catching forwards he is a "bear-cat." His tackling is absolutely sure. His playing was of that steady variety that makes football teams, and promises well for his future career on the gridiron.

JAMES QUERY "C"

Left Tackle

Weight, 160. Height, 5 ft. 7 in.

James Query, tackle! Those three words express much. He's right there with the pep, steam, and weight. He is one of the fastest men of his weight playing high school football in North Carolina. Jimmie is sure and reliable and when he is needed he is always there. He can't be kept back as many backs know to their sorrow and especially are the Greensboro backs aware of this. We expect some day to see his name thus: James Query, All-American tackle.

GEORGE LOWE "C*"

Left Tackle

Weight, 129. Height, 5 ft. 8 in.

George plays football. "The heavier they are, the harder they fall," is his motto. George is right there when it comes to the goods for a football player. Although he did not make the first eleven, when he got in the game he was a tower of strength on the left side of Charlotte's line and many were the players of the opponents that came to grief just opposite the left tackle. He is the hardest tackler that ever came to C. H. S. and many are the men who have realized the fact from sad experience. His favorite pastime on the kick off is arguing with some one who says he will not get the first tackle.

ROBERT DIXON "C"

Weight, 150. Right Tackle. Height, 6 ft.

Bob's first year was a great success. Not only was he a member of the first eleven but he was our only representative on the All-State football team. He was a hard tackler, always causing the man he hit to be in no hurry to get up. A sure play in any game was off Bob's tackle. The team will certainly miss him next year.

TOMMY CLARKSON "C*" (Captain-elect)

Weight, 137. Right End. Height, 5 ft. 7 in.

"Tail End" is around here when it comes to playing football. He tackles low, clear, and hard. When an end run is made around his end the man that makes it has some good interference. Many a time he entertains himself by dumping the interference and then getting the man with the ball. Tommy was laid out of two games with a bad knee, but he made up lost time when he went in again. He was elected captain of the team of '22 and here's luck to him and his followers.

GARRETT MOREHEAD "C"

Left Guard

Weight, 150. Height, 5 ft. 7 in.

"Tubby" looks slow in a football game, but you'd be surprised. He makes it a point to get in every play no matter where it is. He doesn't know what it means to let a man go by. He is a hard and clean tackler—never hits above the knees. After he hits a man twice in a game a new man is needed. When he is set to break up a play he is unmovable. He has two more years at high school and should develop into a wonderfully live man.

DAN MALLERY "C"

Weight, 150. Center. Height, 6 ft.

"Blondie" is always on the job. His passing was accurate and he seldom failed to open up a hole when he was called upon, or to break up any play directed his way. He just can't be kept from breaking up plays. His favorite pastime is breaking up plays before they get started. His defensive work, coupled with his ability to open holes in the opposing lines, has made him one of the most valuable men C. H. S. has ever had. He has won for himself a high place in the high school football circles and will be greatly missed when the call is sent out for next year.

WILLIAM LASLIE "C"

Left Guard

Weight, 155. Height, 5 ft. 7 in.

Bill plays. In his third year at guard he held down his position in such a way as to reflect credit on his team and to cover himself with glory. He presented a veritable stone wall to the enemy's offense, and in turn opened many a hole in their line. He has another year at high school and we are looking forward to his strengthening the line next year.

HARRY ALEXANDER "C"

Right Guard

Weight, 172. Height, 5 ft. 8 in.

This was Harry's first year on the varsity. His playing was of the highest order and not a few guards have learned to their sorrow what kind of a man he is. In not a single game has he failed to distinguish himself; many are the plays that have heard the sound of their death-knell as they hit what was supposed to be a hole in Charlotte's right guard. He deserves credit for the games he put up against his more experienced opponents. His unfailing wit and good humor did much to strengthen the morale of the team.

OLIVER ROWE "C"

Weight, 145. Left Tackle. Height, 6 ft.

This was "13's" first year in football and if he makes as good in his future years as he did this year, another college star will come into the limelight in about two years. He had the fighting spirit that it takes to play football. When it comes to dumping interference and getting the jump on the other man he is hard to beat. He is a sure tackler; he always leaves his feet to make a tackle. The team will surely miss him next year.

ANTHONY EDDY "C"

Weight, 120. Halfback. Height, 5 ft. 8 in.

"Tony" came to us from Fishburne, where he was a member of the squad. "Tony" doesn't look like trouble but in a football game you'd be surprised how much trouble there is in him. He was in every play; he tackled low, clean, and hard. His weight was the principal thing that kept him from making the first eleven. He was especially good at end runs, giving many a back-field man the scare of his life.

HUGH BOYER "C"

Weight—. Left End. Height—

When it comes to catching passes "Hughie" can't be beat. The fellows all said he had "Jew blood" in him but whether he had or not he sure caught some of the hardest passes ever thrown on a football field. When he was on the side lines he played as hard as if he were in a game. He noticed where the enemy was making her gains and when he got in he was sure to stop them. He will run somebody hard for a regular berth next year.

Football Season

The season opened with Monroe in Charlotte, and the game was extremely slow, due to the hot weather. The lone touchdown came in the beginning of the second quarter after Captain Crayton had received a long forward from Bryan and stepped across. The contest ended Charlotte 7, Monroe 0.

We had as our next guests the plucky lads from the Concord High School, who put up a good fight, but were snowed under 28-0.

Coach Murrill then led his warriors up to Winston. The team was run by Milstead, who had had only three days' practice in that position, but Jack ran it like an old timer. Neither team was able to register a touchdown, although Charlotte kept the ball in Winston's territory during the entire game.

The Hi's next tackled C. U. S. who booted the ball between the posts for three points and were the first to register a score at our expense. The Hi's took them into camp 21-3.

Then came our old rival, Greensboro, who proved easy, 13-0. The Gate City lads put up a game fight, but the line smashing of Bierman and the hard tackling of Lowe was too much for them.

Next on our program was the Baird game, which gave us the fight of our lives. The boys from "J. S. P." put forth their utmost effort and played an excellent game, but were defeated 6-0.

In the first elimination game, we met Winston-Salem High School in Charlotte. Just to prove to the fans of Charlotte that we were handicapped in Winston at the first game, we took the measure of the Twin City boys 33-0.

The next Saturday we took on the strong team of the Carolina Military Academy. Charlotte drew the first blood when Laslie recovered the fumbled kick-off and after several line smashes Doar carried the ball over. Then came the thing that made Charlotte fight. The Academy carried the ball over for a touchdown, and was the first team to carry the ball through our lines over the goal. After a very interesting game the score stood 21-7 in Charlotte's favor.

We journeyed down to Greensboro the following Thursday, which was Thanksgiving Day, to play the team we had already beaten 13-0. In the elimination contest, on a one-sided field, and with a good head linesman, Greensboro defeated us for the first time, 13-7, and in a fluke play at that.

The following Tuesday Greensboro played Monroe for the Western Championship and Monroe won by the score of 2-0. Monroe went to Chapel Hill to play Chapel Hill High School for the State Championship. This team, representing the champions of Western North Carolina, had been beaten by us by a score of 7-0, a much larger score than that by which they won the Western championship. They were vanquished by the Chapel Hill High School by a score of 14-0.

A game was sought by us with the Chapel Hill but all was in vain. Thus ended the best season of the Charlotte High School football team, which had won seven games, tied one, and lost one.

TUNE: Stars and Stripes Forever

Cheer the team as it comes on the field ;
It's a team that never will yield ;
Our line is as strong as a wall,
And our team will keep the ball ;
Our backfield is full of vim,
And our men are always in fighting trim ;
So let's be true until the end,
And to old Charlotte High School, C. H. S. forever.

TUNE: Stars and Stripes Forever

Cheer the team as it comes on the floor ;
It's a team that will roll up the score ;
The guards get the ball every time,
And pass it along the line ;
To the center who passes it with vim
To the forwards who always get it in ;
So let's be true to the end,
And to old Charlotte High School, C. H. S. forever.

Basket-ball Season

Playing and defeating every high school basket-ball team in Western North Carolina except three, Charlotte High School has made an enviable record. Although defeated for the State championship by one lone point, the basket-ball team of the Charlotte High School closed its season with a record unequalled by any other North Carolina high school in the last ten years. Every team in Western North Carolina was played and all but three defeated. Of the twenty-seven games played the team won twenty-one and lost six, three of which were played on foreign courts and one was played with a senior team. The strong team of the Asheville School for Boys was defeated twice and this is saying something, for this team played and defeated the principal prep schools of North and South Carolina. The C. H. S. team at the end of the season had piled up a total of one thousand and nine points to their opponents' six hundred and sixty-three.

The team was very fortunate in having one of the best coaches in the State, and if it had not been for him, Charlotte's "won and lost" column would have been different. Mr. "Fessor" Faul, although student of the game, managed to find time from his duties as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. to put the boys through their paces and whip them into one of the most formidable cage aggregations Western North Carolina has ever turned out. Here's success to "Fessor" and he will always find a hearty welcome at the Charlotte High School.

The first game of the season was lost to Churchland. But the Hi's came to their own and defeated Belmont, Greensboro and Concord—all in a row. Lexington Hi's gave us our next defeat, but the team came home more determined to win, and defeated Raleigh and Monroe. Then they left on their western trip, defeating the strong team representing C. M-N. A. The next afternoon they gave the Asheville School for Boys its first defeat. That night they lost to Asheville High School.

After the team returned they won two games, but lost one game to Winston-Salem. Then started the elimination series. Before a week had passed the snappy Hi's had eliminated Huntersville, Dixie, Candler and Belmont.

The team left for Chapel Hill Tuesday morning and defeated Greensboro that night, and after a day's rest eliminated the strong Leaksville team. The game was anybody's game until the whistle blew. Then the strong team representing the eastern part of the State was met for the State championship. The game was a hard, clean-fought one. Charlotte had bad luck on shooting fouls. Never a better game of high school basket-ball had been seen at Chapel Hill. Neither team ever led by more than four points, and had the game lasted one minute longer, most probably the result would have been different. We let the State championship drop by one lone point, but still retained the western championship. Thus closed the best basket-ball season the Charlotte High School has ever witnessed.

Girls' Basket-ball

The prospects of a winning team for the girls were very bright this year, for the same squad came out for practice that graced the positions on the varsity for '20, and we hoped sincerely to make something of it.

After the class games had been played and the Seniors had proven themselves champions, the varsity team was chosen. Then we found that the varsity of '20 was to be the varsity of '21 with the help of several substitutes, just to brighten things up.

Each year the obstacles in the path of the girls' team are gradually being overcome, and we are proud to know that our team has been an active force in removing these obstacles, for by this have we not shown that girls, as well as boys, can fight for the honor and praise of the school they both love?

In conclusion we would like to extend to Mr. Couch and Mr. Murrill our sincere appreciation for the splendid training they so obligingly put us through; and to all the members of the student-body we extend our heart-felt gratitude for the splendid co-operation given us in all our contests with visiting teams.

SNIPS & CUTS

Baseball

The baseball season strated about three weeks before the end of the basket-ball season. Coach Murrill called for pitchers and catchers first, and immediately after the return of the basket-ball team from Chapel Hill, practice was started in earnest. Practice started in full swing at Independence Park, where, about forty boys were run through each afternoon. With Mr. Murrill as Coach, "Tootie" Crayton, Manager, and Harry Alexander, Captain, our chance for the State championship looks promising.

The probable line-up will be as follows:

ALEXANDER GRAHAM LITERARY SOCIETY

Alexander Graham Literary Society

1920-1921

In 1904, through the efforts of our able superintendent, Mr. Harding, our first Literary Society was organized. Since that time our school has grown so large that the Alexander Graham Society over-flowed and it was necessary to form another society which was called the Bill Davis Literary Society. Last year the name of the latter was changed to the John Charles McNeill Literary Society.

This year has wrought quite a number of changes in our Literary Society circles. The girls and boys of the Junior and Senior classes formed separate societies; the boys organizing under the name of "Cameron Morrison Literary Society"; the girls adopting the old name of "Alexander Graham Literary Society." Each eighth and ninth grade organized its own individual society.

Even though we had a late start we feel that the members of the Alexander Graham Literary Society have been vastly benefited by this year's work. The aims of the society are intellectual, moral, and social development.

Our society meets on the third Friday of each school month. The programs consist of debates, recitations, current events, and music. Much talent has been displayed at the meetings and we predict the Charlotte High School will turn out a goodly number of suffragettes. As a final word we want to thank all who, by their talent, have co-operated in making the Alexander Graham Society a most successful organization. Whatever the mistakes that have been made, or whatever the feature that has been lacking, it can be truthfully said that this society is a great asset to the High School and its work and progress would reflect credit on any school.

CAMERON MORRISON LITERARY SOCIETY

Cameron Morrison Literary Society

1920-1921

At the first meeting of all the students of the Junior and Senior classes who wished to belong to literary societies, it was voted to divide the boys and girls into separate societies. It was thought that under these conditions the greatest possible development could be attained.

The boys' society at their first meeting voted to adopt the name "Cameron Morrison Literary Society." It was felt that this name was most appropriate because Mr. Morrison was the first citizen of Charlotte to be elected Governor of North Carolina.

The aims which our society have endeavored to fulfill are to teach and encourage the students to express themselves in public and to guide their minds into literary channels. To these ends, our programs include debates, declamations, recitations, five-minute talks, topics of the day, and musical selections, spiced with humor. In carrying out these programs it has been the policy of the committees to offer as many students as possible opportunities to develop themselves along these lines.

The 1921 Triangular Debaters

April 1, 1921

In the triangular debate this year our affirmative team, composed of Frank Ivy and Gelder Robinson, debated Durham's negative at Raleigh; our negative team, composed of Sarah Dunlap and Stuart Quern, met Raleigh's affirmative at Durham. Our debating team this year was composed entirely of seniors. Frank, a new comer in our midst this year, excelled in oratory as well as in presenting the argument convincingly for his side. Debating is no new field for Gelder, as he upheld the honor of our school last year, and this year has only added to his laurels as a declaimer and debater. Sarah, the only girl among the jolly four, captivated the audience by her attractive and forceful manner of pleading her cause. She holds tenaciously to her argument. Stewart, the wit of the quartette, proved a winning factor against Raleigh by his brilliant reasoning and his wonderful storehouse of examples. We predict a bright and famous future for all these youthful forensic artists.

The Student Council

A representative body of the students of the school, known as the Student Council, was formed last fall by Mr. McCall, our principal, for the purpose of giving the school a voice in the internal affairs of the school. It is sincerely hoped that this Council will form the basis of a student self-government system for the school, as it is a representative organization which endeavors to better the standards and conduct of the pupils. The Council is made up of a boy and girl elected from each room, the presidents of the four classes, and the presidents of the Athletic Association and of the Girls' High School Club.

HI-Y CLUBS

This is the first year that the Charlotte High School has had a Hi-Y Club, and this year has proven that the Hi-Y Club is an asset to any high school. Our club is affiliated with the State and international organizations. The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The slogan is "Clean Living, Clean Speech, Clean Athletics, Clean Scholarship, and Contagious Christian Character."

Our organization is divided into three different clubs: The Senior Club, the Junior Club, and the Sophomore Club. Each club meets separately every week and is instructed in the Bible by their respective leaders. Once a month the combined clubs have a banquet which is followed by instructive talks from prominent Charlotte citizens.

GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL CLUB

GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL CLUB

The Girls' High School Club, an organization to which any high school girl above the Freshman Class may belong, was begun several years ago under the direction of the local Young Women's Christian Association. From the time of its organization, the club has steadily grown in numbers and in influence until today it is a factor of great importance in creating and maintaining high standards for our school.

The yearly program of the club includes much that is helpful to the average school girl, and at the same time gives her the opportunity for social service of various kinds. At the regular meetings of the club, problems that are met at high school are discussed and as a result, important decisions relating to all phases of our social life are often reached. For instance, the Poster Campaign, urging the importance of a high school education, carried on in the sixth and seventh grades of the city schools, was a movement sponsored by the Girls' High School Club. And again the campaign for higher ideals in work and recreation was carried through by the club in connection with the Hi-Y Clubs.

The high school girls, through the club, have been able to do much to help others. The Christmas tree gave a great deal of joy to a number of children who otherwise could have had no "Santa Claus." The Christmas bags sent to some Indian children in Arizona also carried from the club a bit of the true Christmas spirit.

Of interest to others besides the members of the Girls' High School Club is the annual College Day which is held under the auspices of the Southern Association of College Women and the Girls' Department of the Y. W. C. A. Most of the leading Southern colleges send delegates and colleges too far away to send delegates send interesting letters. By means of this meeting many girls are encouraged to attend college.

Now besides all these interesting things, there are the various good things to be enjoyed throughout the year, such as the picnic at Camp Latta for the girls in last year's Senior Class, and the Hallowe'en party for the Hi-Y boys.

In all these phases of our club activities we are striving more and more towards the accomplishment of the purpose of the club which is "to create, maintain, extend, and practice throughout the Charlotte High School, high ideals of Christian character; to bring the student to a personal knowledge of Jesus Christ, and to give her opportunities for Christian service."

The Letter Club

The Letter Club made its appearance in the Charlotte High School for the first time this year. Anyone who has made a letter in any form of athletics is eligible for membership. The Y. M. C. A. has very kindly offered the club a furnished room in which the semi-monthly meetings are held, and where members may spend their leisure time. The object of the club is to show distinction to those who have spent their time and energy to represent their high school in athletics. There are eighteen football men and six basket-ball men in the club, and since this is the first year of the club, there are no baseball men among its members. Although the Letter Club has not accomplished much this year, we hope to make it a real organ of our school.

The Al-Gra-Hy

The "Al-Gra-Hy" (short for Alexander Graham High) is the successor to the "Tattler," last year's school weekly. The magazine of this year is about six times as large as last year's "Tattler" and appears monthly. Its aim is to be a thoroughly representative school publication, portraying the life of the student in all its aspects: in school work, in athletics and in entertainments.

The staff of the "Al-Gra-Hy" is made up of elected seniors who are considered competent to write in their respective fields of actions, and who are noted for their enthusiasm in helping the school. Taken as a whole, it is composed of the best material the school offers. It frequently also calls in aid from various members of the student-body, and receives and prints contributions worthy of publication.

The magazine has had an all-round successful year and hopes to bequeath a popular heritage to the future senior class.

DANCE FOR MONROE

Saturday, September 25, 1920, the C. H. S. football team gave a dance for the Monroe football team, whom C. H. S. had defeated that afternoon. The dance was given at the home of Robert Buck. Dancing was enjoyed by many members of the high school until twelve o'clock. Refreshments consisting of punch and cakes were served during the evening.

RECEPTION FOR GREENSBORO

Friday, October 29, 1920, in the High School auditorium, C. H. S. gave a reception in honor of the Greensboro football team. C. H. S. had been victorious over the visitors that afternoon. The evening was enjoyed thoroughly by all those present. Ice cream cones were served during the evening.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Girls' High School Club gave a Hallowe'en party at the Y. W. C. A. in honor of the Hi-Y Clubs, Monday, November 1, 1920. All attending were dressed in weird, fascinating costumes. Many Hallowe'en games were enjoyed, such as, bobbing for apples and chewing the string. Throughout the evening ice cream and cakes were served.

DANCE FOR WINSTON FOOTBALL TEAM

Friday, November 12, 1920, C. H. S. football team gave a dance at the Selwyn Hotel in honor of the Winston-Salem football team. A large number of the high school set was present. Music was furnished by Shadd's Orchestra and dancing was enjoyed by all until midnight. As we had defeated Winston that afternoon the dance was more than enjoyed by the Charlotte High School members present.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS, DECEMBER 20, 1920 TO JANUARY 4, 1921

On account of the poor heating in the school building the Christmas holidays began three days earlier than scheduled, much to the joy of the students. Many dances and parties were enjoyed by the high school set during the holidays.

LETTER CLUB DANCE

The Letter Club gave a dance at Woman's Club, Saturday, January 8, 1921. The Letter Club is made up of the boys who have made a position on the varsity football, basket-ball, or baseball squad. The dance was a very enjoyable affair. The chaperones for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Sid Lowe, and guest, Miss Grier, of Fort Mill, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Murrill, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Purser. Music was furnished by Shadd's Orchestra.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY

The Juniors gave the Seniors a party at the home of Miss Minerva McClung, Friday, January 21, 1921. The house was attractively decorated in the Senior Class colors—green and white. A merry game of clap in and clap out opened the evening's festivities. After tiring of games, dancing was enjoyed during the latter part of the evening. Delightful refreshments, cake and ice cream, were served by the Juniors throughout the evening.

DANCE FOR WINSTON AND RALEIGH

On Saturday, January, 1921, the girl's and boys' basket-ball teams gave a dance in honor of the Winston girls' basket-ball team and the Raleigh boys' basket-ball team. The dance was given at the home of Miss Virginia LeGrande Whitlock, in Myers Park. Dancing was thoroughly enjoyed by all until 12 o'clock. Throughout the evening refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cakes, were served by the host and hostess. The dance was especially enjoyed by the C. H. S. teams because they had been victorious over the visitors earlier in the evening.

STUNT NIGHT

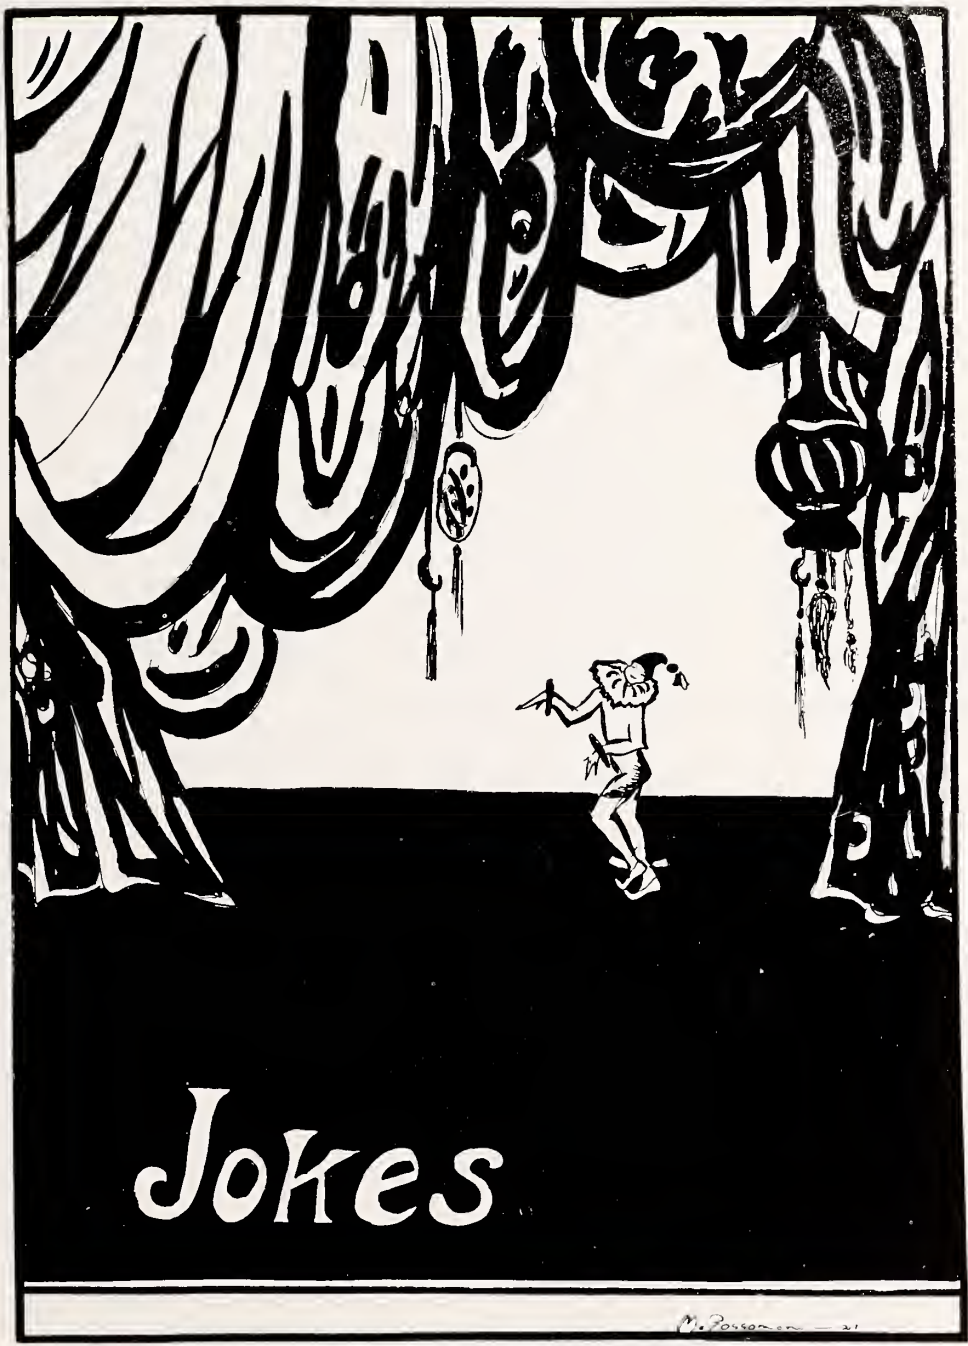

One of the most enjoyable events of the mid-term was "Stunt Night," which occurred on the night of February 12, in the high school auditorium. It was given for the benefit of the High School Parent-Teacher Association and a good sum was realized. Each class presented an original stunt. The stunt which received the first prize of five dollars was the one put on by Class 9-E, number two. It represented a group of little girls in an orphan asylum with Miss Jean Crowell as their matron. She put them through their usual morning exercises, much to the enjoyment of the audience. Class 9-E, number two, presented their prize of five dollars to the Seniors for the benefit of the Annual. The second prize of two dollars was won by Class 8-A. The members of 8-A represented a school class with Miss Clara Davis Porter as its teacher. She called the roll and the names of the students were the same as the names of the present faculty. 8-A also presented its prize for the benefit of the Annual.

After the presentation of the stunts, ice cream cones and candy were sold for the benefit of the Annual. The evening will be remembered pleasantly by all who attended.

DAVIDSON GLEE CLUB CONCERT, APRIL 8, 1921

Friday, April 8, 1921, the Davidson College Glee Club presented an entertainment under the auspices of SNIPS AND CUTS. The entertainment, which consisted of a concert and vaudeville combined, was held in our high school auditorium. The performance was enjoyed by all attending. The quartet was exceptionally good. The vaudeville act was also noteworthy, as well as the acrobatic stunts which were greeted with a shower of warm applause. The Wildcat Jazz Orchestra, which, by the way, certainly lives up to its name, sent the audience into shivers of ecstasy. The Glee Club Chorus, made up of nineteen men, sang many folk songs and popular airs, of which all were thoroughly enjoyed. Although the performance was very poorly attended, it proved the source of a great deal of pleasure to the few present.

The time has come for the Annual to go to press and our spring activities have hardly begun. The Senior-Junior party, class banquet, and many other parties and dances will be enjoyed by us this spring. Thus we will carry away many happy thoughts and memories of the years spent in the good old Charlotte High School.

Teacher—Name the presidents, Louise.

Louise—Impossible!

Teacher—But I knew them all when I was a girl.

Louise—Yes, there were only two or three then.

“07”—You are always behind in your studies.

“23”—Well, you see, sir, it gives me a chance to pursue them.

Jack—I don't think I should get a zero on this examination.

Prof.—Correct, but that's the lowest mark I know of.

RAISING THE PRICE

Mother—Johnny, will you be quiet for a bit?

Johnny—I'll do it for two bits.

Frank Ivy (in class room)—Prof., I used to go to school from a. m. in the morning until p. m. in the afternoon.

Prof. Hart—What do you work at, Gene Williams?

Gene W.—At intervals, Professor.

LOVE

Love is like an onion,
We taste it with delight,
And when it's gone, we wonder
Whatever made us bite.

Little dear Mosquito
Lying there dead:
Oh! Why did you light
On grandfather's head?

On the subject of English examination:

Lucy Holmes C.—Henry, are you out?

H. Wily—Yes, out-of-luck.

Frank Ivy (on a picnic)—How are you getting along?

Jack Milstead (crossing a barbed-wire fence)—I'm having a ripping time.

PSYCHOLOGY

Professor—Now I put the number seven on the board. What number immediately comes into your mind?

Class (in unison)—Eleven!

Prof. (in physics class)—David Yates, how do you measure the pitch of sound?

David Y.—With a pitch fork, Prof.

When first he went to call on her,
He showed a timid heart,
And when the lights were lowered
They sat this far apart.

But when his love grew stronger
And they learned the joy of a kiss,
He knocked out all the spaces
Andsatupcloselikethis.

“What did you and Jack talk about last night?” asked mother of her daughter the next morning. Daughter looked rather uneasy. “Well,” she began, “we discussed different things—our kith and kin and—”

“Deed, they did, ma,” piped in little brother. “He said, ‘Can I kith you?’ and she said, ‘Yeth, you kin.’”

Mr. Couch (in biology class)—Louise, what is the highest form of animal life?

Louise G. (quickly)—The giraffe.

WHY THEY'RE WHISKERLESS

Little boy—Mother, are there any men angels in heaven?

Mother—Why, certainly, dear.

Little boy—But, mother, I never saw any pictures of angels with whiskers.

Mother—No, dear, men get in with a close shave.

Carl U.—Your brother is one of the fixtures in the gas office, I suppose.

Henrietta C.—I guess so—anyhow they're going to turn him off.

WHAT HE SAID

Professor—So, sir, you said that I was a learned jackass, did you?

Freshie—No, sir, I merely remarked that you were a burro of information.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT

A chink by the name of Ching Ling
Fell off a street car, bing, binb,

The conductor turned his head,
To the passengers said—
The car's lost a washer, ding, ding.

"My heart is with the ocean!" cried the poet rapturously.

"You've gone me one better," said his seasick friend, as he took a firmer grip on the rail.

You say that clothes don't make a man,
And so I won't annoy yuh—
But I can show you lots of proof
Where suits have made a lawyer.

PRAYERS NEEDED

Visitor—What does the chaplain do here?

Freshman—Oh, he gets up in chapel every morning, looks over the student body, and then prays for the college.

THE DRAWL AND THE CRAWL

As usual the Yankee was drawing the long bow:

"On one occasion," he said, "I shot 999 snipe."

The Englishman looked incredulous.

"You might make it a thousand while you're about it," he sneered.

"No," answered Uncle Sam's offspring righteously, "it's not likely I'm going to tell a lie for one snipe."

The Englishman determined not to be outdone, and began to tell a story of a man who swam from Liverpool to Boston.

"Did you see him yourself?" inquired the Yank.

"Why, yes, of course, I did. I was coming across the water and our vessel passed him a mile outside of Boston harbor."

"Well," retorted the Yankee, "I'm glad you saw him, stranger, 'cause you're a witness I did it. I was that man."

Mr. McCall (in basket-ball game, speaking of David Yates)—Why, there's our best man.

Young Lady (whom he is accompanying)—
Oh, Mr. McCall, how sudden!

WHERE HE WAS BOLD

Gladys—Your husband took you to a football match?

Mae—Yes,—I wish I could make him talk to the cook the way he talked to the referee.

Teacher—What is the loud knocking at the end of the murder scene in Macbeth?

Pupil—That's Duncan kicking the bucket.

THE MISSING BLUSH

He told the shy maid of his love,

The color left her cheeks:

But on the shoulder of his coat,

It showed for several weeks.

RAY—ACTION

Oh chemist of skill, investigate!
Answer this quiz of mine.
I think I know what Carbonate,
But where did Iodine?

WORTH THE PRICE

"I understand," remarked Callahan to his friend Casey, "that the judge fined ye $10 for assaultin' Coughlin the other day."

"He did that," answered Mr. Casey, "an' it was a proud moment, I'll tell ye, whin I heard the sintince."

"How's that?"

"I'm thinkin'," continued Mr. Casey, "that it showed which one of us had the best of the fight."

The following paragraph recently appeared in a newspaper: "While in New York City, a North Carolina man saw in a newspaper a statement that his home town had been entirely swept away by a hurricane. On returning he found that one mule alone had been lost."

Must have been a one-hawse town.

PERHAPS THE SERGEANT, TOO

It was Sunday, and Sergeant Jones was driving a bucking, one-cylinder Ford down the streets of the old home town.

"Ought to put Lizzie's name on the casualty list," called a fresh gob who witnessed the struggle.

"Whaddye mean?" hist the sergeant between bucks.

"Missing in action!"

"Watch your step, Miss," cautioned the conductor on a street car.

"It isn't necessary," snapped the incoming passenger, "that bunch of sapheads on the curb are doing that for me."

BACK-FIRED

When the clock struck "12" the other night father came to the head of the stairway and in a rather loud tone of voice said:

"Young man, is your 'self starter' out of order tonight?"

"It doesn't matter," retorted the young man, "as long as there's a crank in the house."

EVERLASTING FIRE

Mistress (to cook from the country)—Well, what do you think of our gas fires?

Cook—I think them wonderful, ma'am. Why, those in the kitchen haven't gone out since I came here over a week ago.

Who was the first man who came from the Ark if Noah came forth?

HE SHOULD WORRY

"Where were you yesterday, Tommy Cribbs?" asked the teacher.

"Please, mum, I had a toothache," answered Tommy.

"Has it stopt?" asked the teacher sympathetically.

"I don't know," said Tommy.

"What do you mean, boy? You don't know if your tooth has stopt aching?"

"No, mum, the dentist kept it."

William, aged six, and grandfather, aged seventy, had birthdays on successive days, a matter of much concern to the former.

"Grandpa," he said one day after pondering on the subject in silence for several minutes, "If I'd waited a day for you or you'd hurried up for me, we'd have been twins, wouldn't we?"

"Why is this package so damp?"

"Postage due."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

There are several ways of using baked ham. One of the best is to eat it.

Honey may be used for sweetening almost anything but a traffic cop.

Spaghetti should not be cooked too long. About ten inches is right.

A cold bath will be found more pleasant if made with hot water.

Hair tonic used to be used for shampoos. Now it is used for shambooze.

"Father, didn't you ever get licked when you were a boy?"

Indeed, I did."

"Well, then, what's the use trying it on me?"

Mr. Blunderly—I don't chew gum, Bobbie. What makes you think I do?

Small Brother—Because I heard my sister say that when you were at the dance the other night you gummed the whole party.

Said the raindrop to the dust: "If I drop on you you name will be mud."

Little Mary—Mama, Mama, come quick!
Nurse says sister has spit curls, and maybe she'll do it again."

Teacher—Mary, will you answer the next question?

Obliging Pupil—She's absent.

Teacher—That's funny, she didn't answer
"absent" when I called the roll.

INFORMATION WANTED

At a banquet given by a large body of educators the speaker of the evening rose and began his address with the words, "Long live the teachers!" He was interrupted by a tall, emaciated young man who rose from the rear of the room and in a sepulchral voice queried,
"On what?"

AN OBJECT LESSON

The patient teacher was trying to show the small boy how to read with expression.

"Where-are-you-going," read Johnny laboriously, with no accent whatever.

"Try that again," said the teacher. "Read as if you were talking. Notice that mark at the end."

Johnny studied the interrogation mark a moment, and an idea seemed to dawn upon him; then he read out triumphantly:

"Where are you going little buttonhook?"

THE HURRY-UP KIND

At the post-office a little girl deposited a dime in front of the clerk and said: "Please, I forgot the name of the stamp mama told me to get, but it's the kind that makes a letter hurry up."

Teacher—Why is silk more expensive than wool?

Freshie—Because it's so much more trouble to shear a little silk worm than a great big sheep.

REPORTING TO DAVY JONES

Sam, on board the transport, had just been issued his first pair of hobnails.

"One thing, suah," he ruminated, "if Ah falls overboard, Ah suttinly will go down at 'tenshun."

INSUBORDINATE FOWL

Hiking through the small French town, an ignorant chicken, unversed in the appetites of American darkies, crossed the road in front of a colored detachment. With much zeal a soldier broke forth from the ranks and set out in pursuit.

"Halt!" bellowed the officer in charge. Both fowl and negro only accelerated their paces.

"Halt! Halt!" repeated the officer. The dusky dough-boy made one plunge, grasped the chicken by the neck and stuffed it, still struggling, inside his shirt.

"Dere!" he panted. "Ah'll learn you to halt when de captain says halt, you disobedient bird."

YOUNG MAN

When school days are over and you seek your fortune in the business world your past accomplishments will count for much. The best recommendation you can give is a bank book showing that you have saved a part of your allowance or earnings. The ability to save is a test of character which all business men are quick to recognize. The earlier you begin the easier it will be.

REENFORCED VIRTUE

Teacher—In what part of the Bible is it taught that a man should have only one wife?

Little Boy—I guess it's the part that says that no man can serve more than one master.

Don't Fall for this!

"Nearly everybody has a well-developed bump of curiosity."

"And what does it lead too?"

"Why, in this case, it amounts to turning the paper upside down."

Governess—When did William the Conqueror come to England?

Pupil—I don't know.

Governess—But doesn't it say in your book, "William the Conqueror, 1066?"

Pupil—Yes; but I thought that was his telephone number.

Ruth—I want to see some mirrors.

Saleman—Handmirrors?

Ruth—No, mirrors for faces.

"Another puncture!
Dad will catch us sure, he's got LEE Puncture-proof tires on"

IF "foresight" was as keen as "hindsight", there would be no embarrassing, distressing and costly delays on account of punctures.

Lee Puncture-proof pneumatics are all the name implies.

In every essential of material and manufacture they are equal to any tire you can buy. Thru this one feature—elimination of punctures—they surpass all others.

If other well-made tires were puncture-proof they might be just as good. But because this is an exclusive feature, Lee Puncture-proof tires are by far the best for any service where the saving of time, labor and money is desirable.

On cars used for business or commercial purposes this is especially true.

And it needs only one or two unfortunate experiences with punctures to convince the average car owner that it is wisdom to be on the safe side with Lee Puncture-proof tires.

We will be glad to demonstrate.

Three layers of case-hardened steel discs imbedded in pure rubber are built into every Lee Puncture-proof tire.
